Venice Schools Hit Salary Freeze Snag

By VALERIE EVENEDEN

Press-Record Staff Writer

The Venice School District is in violation of the national Wage-Price Freeze by paying faculty members an increased salary rate since Aug. 27, according to an opinion by School Board Attorney Lawrence F. Hartman which he delivered to the board Monday night.

Scheduled pay hikes, amounting to a $500-across-the-board raise for the district's 53 teachers, were granted by the Venice board last month under terms of a two-year contract which runs through the 1971-72 school year.

"I believe we are one of the few school districts in Illinois that has granted a raise to the teachers," Hartman said, adding, "It is my opinion they (teachers) should not have received the raise even though negotiations were prior to the freeze date."

The attorney noted that most of the 15 faculty members at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center and one teacher in the Venice Public Schools were eligible for the scheduled raises; their salary increases started with a July 1 pay period.

Retrieve Overpayments

Problems involved in retrieving an estimated $150 per teacher, (maximum figure), the amount paid out under the higher pay scale, occupied the board during a lengthy discussion at Monday's meeting.

In a written opinion, elaborated on at the session, Attorney Hartman stated: "The Office of Emergency Preparedness has published information which clearly establishes that most of the teachers in our system are not eligible for the wage increase."

"There was considerable confusion as to whether or not one teacher in the system being eligible for the increase would in fact make all other teachers eligible," Hartman said.

"Stabilization Program Guidelines," clearly establish that our teachers are not eligible for the increase. If in fact, the teacher accrued earnings at the new rate which cover a period prior to Aug. 15 (freeze date), then and only then would they be entitled to the increased rate."

Pay Periods Determine

Hartman continued, "It is my understanding that one teacher at the Venice Public School did in fact accrue earnings prior to Aug. 15 ... and that most, if not all, of the teachers at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center accrued earnings prior to that date."

The attorney explained that the guidelines state — "If an agreement was made with the

BURN VICTIM in the St. Elizabeth Hospital 'disaster drill' is treated in the hospital cafeteria after emergency rooms become filled to capacity. The 'patient' is Dennis Ross. Treating him on the right is Karen Viviano, RN, and Dr. Felicia D. Koch, MD. Standing by ready to assist is the Rev. Paul Surbey.

Mock Disaster Hospital Drill

Wailing sirens pierced the air almost incessantly for close to an hour yesterday afternoon, prompting many Granite Cityans to call local authorities and the Press-Record asking if a large-scale disaster had occurred in the community.

In effect, a "disaster" had taken place and the results of the "mock" catastrophe could be seen at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where an all-out drill tested the preparedness of the hospital staff in handling different types of cases under emergency conditions.

Hospital officials said today results of the drill were "highly satisfactory," with well-coordinated teamwork displayed by participating medical personnel and staff members.

Realism was added to the drill by students from Granite City High School who arrived at the hospital's emergency entrance by ambulance simulating the disaster victims.

Makeup was used extensively by the students to graphically portray their conditions which ranged from burns and fractures to severe internal and head injuries. Other casualties were brought to the hospital in various stages of "shock" and a few acted the part of victims fatally injured.

To the casual observer all those taking part appeared genuinely hurt and realism was further added by the moans and yells produced by the student-actors.

Staff physicians, assisted by nurses, quickly diagnosed, treated or transferred cases to one of five temporary sections, designated for life-saving, burns, fractures, pre-op or first aid.

Normal hospital functions continued during the disaster drill with only a percentage of the staff activated or alerted. Explorers and candy strippers were used as messengers and to aid at staff stations.

Cooperating in the exercise were the Granite City Civil Defense, local police and fire departments and funeral homes. The latter furnished the ambulances.

OK Mail Engineer Fund

By HARRY BARNES

Press-Record Staff Writer

Payment of fees for engineering in the "Phase A" development of the proposed downtown Granite City Mall was authorized by the Granite City Council Tuesday night.

The action clears the way for plan preparation and subsequent procedure by the Granite City Board of Local Improvements to create and finance development of the mall project.

Authorization for payment of $3,600 in engineering and planning fees permits the Board of Local Improvements to sign a contract with Harland Bartholomew & Associates, St. Louis planning and engineering consultants who have been assisting in preliminary studies for the downtown improvement program.

At the same time, the council was informed during its Tuesday night meeting, in a report by the Bartholomew firm, that data obtained in studies thus far indicates that overall costs of the mall project will be from $200,000 to $300,000. At the time the project was initiated in January 1969, cost was estimated at $100,000.

Give Fee Estimate

The Bartholomew report also informed the council that engineering fees based on the present estimated cost of the project will amount to about $5,000 for "Phase B," and from $10,000 to $25,000 for Phases C and D, the exact amount to depend upon the actual construction cost.

In a presentation of the scope of work proposed by the engineering firm, the council was told that Phase A planning would involve development of preliminary information and estimates of cost which would permit the Board of Local Improvements to proceed with an early date with a public hearing and other procedure necessary to establish a Downtown Improvement District No. 1.

Under state law, local improvement boards may levy assessments as a first property tax on adjoining local improvements districts created by the board. The Granite City board has decided to apply this system in financing the project, rather than depend upon voluntary payments by merchants in the area that would be benefited by the mall.

Granite City's Board of Local Improvements is made up of Mayor Donald Partney, Alderman Walter Nomm of the Fifth Ward, Street Superintendent Lionel Partney and Second Ward Alderman Frank Greenwood.

The Bartholomew Associates report and scope of work proposal said the Phase A engineering and planning will include some modification of the original plan for the downtown Granite City improvement.

Part of the money would eliminate the parking area in the Nidringhaus mall during first-stage construction and provide vehicular access on Nidringhaus between Cleveland Boulevard and Deimar Avenue.

Need Cost Estimate

Sufficient detailed information will be provided in the Phase A planning to convey a full concept of the improvement and to

Financial Problem On City Sewer Plan

Lack of city funds to finance further engineering work on Granite City's secondary sewage treatment plant brought the project to a temporary halt Tuesday night as the city council, in regular meeting, instructed its sewage plant engineers to await notice before proceeding in more advanced planning.

Mayor Donald Partney told the council the city "needs about a month" to investigate methods of financing an additional $400,000 worth of engineering work on the secondary plant which must be built under orders of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency by Dec. 31, 1973. The city already has paid the M-W Engineering firm of St. Louis $102,000 for the first phase planning which was presented to the council Tuesday night.

Council members approved in the meeting a final payment of $2,750 from the M-W firm of the $120,000 total bill for sewage plant plan development.

This planning work also included sewage plant planning reports which Ray C. Haller, president of the M-W firm, told the council have been completed and filed with the Illinois EPA from which they now are awaiting word of approval.

Haller told council members that a major problem confronting the city is the fact that federal and state grants providing approximately 80% of the total cost of the sewage treatment plant, interceptor sewer lines and stormwater overflow facilities will be available only after the city first has put up its 20% of the estimated cost of the project with advanced funding.

No Advance Funds

On this basis, the city will be unable to obtain advance grant funds which could be used to finance engineering and preliminary construction work.

Haller also told the council that estimated cost of the proposed secondary sewage treatment plant is $15.3 million. This includes interceptor sewers that would serve township areas adjoining Granite City—Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau—which already have approached Granite City with a plan to build the interceptors with separate funds provided by a township project. This work would become a part of Granite City's share in the overall treatment plant work and would provide part of the money needed to finance Granite City's 20% share of the overall construction cost.

Mayor Partney told the Press-Record after Tuesday night's meeting that funds that would become available through the township program could help Granite City considerably in its dilemma to provide immediate engineering funds for advanced planning of the major treatment plant project.

City Cost $3 Million

Under the existing plan, Granite City expects to obtain 80% of the treatment plant cost in

Police 'Friendship' Plan Endorsed for GC Schools

"Officer Friendly" may soon be visiting kindergarten through third grade children in the Granite City elementary schools under a new program approved by the Granite City Board of Education Monday night.

The program, conducted by several Granite City policemen, is planned to build a respect for law and order in the children at an early age and to teach them social rules and respect for others.

Headed by Patrolman Roy J. Koberna, a drive is under way for support from local service clubs and organizations to help purchase materials utilized in the program.

Schools wishing to use the service will invite a policeman to visit the school. He will present a short lecture with the aid of a visual aid flip chart and magic tricks which emphasize safety and respect. After the presentation, each child will be given a coloring book which reviews each point made in the presentation.

"Most of all, we want to reach them at the policeman is their friend and that we are there to help them," Patrolman Koberna stated.

Venice Approves Distribution of 1970 Tax Funds

The Venice City Council in regular meeting Tuesday night approved a treasurer's report for September, showing total receipts of $227,040.39, and disbursements of $222,622.56.

Taxes accounted for $132,219 of total revenue. An additional $3,987 was received from Illinois State Income tax for August, and $2,425 was received in sales tax for June.

Major disbursements, which represent distribution to fund accounts of the 1970 corporate tax, were Public Library, $24,566; police pension, $28,873; Illinois Municipal Retirement, $11,986; fund transfer, $8,945.49 and working cash, $6,172.

Other disbursements approved for September included $20,008 for streets and alleys, $19,270 for police protection, $5,948 for garbage collection, $786 for street lighting and $4,139.32 for fire protection.

In other council action a building permit was issued for a garage at the residence of Chief of Police Ralph D. Brawley, 718 Brown St.

The council also accepted the arrest report for the month of September. The report showed 22 adult and 11 juvenile arrests, and receipt of $156 from the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for fines collected during the month.

The council will meet at 8 p.m. Nov. 2 at the Venice City Hall.

Imports Take 30% of August Steel Market

Imports took 30.5% of the total domestic steel market during August as shipments from U.S. mills plummeted to their lowest level in a dozen years.

Domestic steelmakers shipped only 3,703,000 tons of new steel to their customers during the month.

This was the lowest shipment total since the last major industry-wide strike in 1959—a walkout which paralyzed most of the nation's steel-making capacity for 116 days.

Meanwhile, foreign producers were shipping 1,544,000 tons of their steel into the U.S. Continued working down of inventories built up during steel labor negotiations, and sluggish recovery from the recession, also depressed demand for U.S.-made steel.

Through the first eight months of 1971, domestic mill shipments were 65,638,000 tons, or nearly 2.4 million tons above the 63,246,000 tons shipped in the same period of last year.

The year-to-year edge is attributable primarily to hedging-buying earlier this year.

Council Urges Limit On 'Trick or Treats'

Granite City aldermen hope to soften the blow of Halloween pranks by a resolution urging youngsters to do their "trick and treating" between 3 and 5 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 31.

Under a motion presented in city council meeting Tuesday night by Alderman Thomas Boker, City Attorney Leon Scroggins is to bring into Monday night's council meeting a resolution that will set the 3 to 5 p.m. hours as a Granite City "Trick or Treat" period.

Boker remarked that "I'm not looking for some kind of a law to enforce, but something that would encourage the kids in these times to do their trick and treating while it is safe and reduce the problems we are going to have anyway on Halloween night."

At first Boker referred to the Halloween period as "Beggars night."

Mayor Donald Partney objected.

"I go out on Halloween night and I don't like to be called a beggar," the mayor commented.

Alderman Walter Nunn said, "I think you're looking for trouble when you try to regulate something like this."

Alderman Roy Poulos said he thought the matter should be given "more thought."

Council Member William Dallas told the aldermen "you're trying to take away something the kids have always had."

Recommend No Change In Sick Leave Rules

Granite City's sick leave ordinance "has plenty of teeth" and should be left unchanged, according to a recommendation given city council members Tuesday night by Alderman Thomas Boker, chairman of the council's Special Negotiating Committee.

Reporting on results of a meeting of his committee last week, Boker said the committee recommended the ordinance "remain in status quo" but that it be enforced by the city administration.

teacher before Aug. 15, the fact that the teacher elected to take a 10-month pay rate, effective Sept. 1, would not penalize the teachers right to the agreed increases, but only if the teacher had the option to be paid at the higher rate on a 12-month schedule and the 12-month schedule would have met the eligibility criteria.

Hartman said that salary payments for Venice teachers are set up on a 10-month basis, with the salary divided into 27 payments. "The teachers time is to start from the first day of the established school year, unless contracts otherwise specify," he said, noting that the first payday for the 1971-72 school year was Aug. 27.

Use 70-71 Schedule

"It is also my opinion," the attorney said, "that teachers who would receive an increase because of the number of years (automatic increments) would not receive that increase under the old salary schedule (1970-71)."

"Teachers who would receive an increase because of college credits earned as the result of an increase in the bachelor's to a master's degree could receive an increase but under the old salary schedule."

"In that our system has been paying teachers under the new salary schedule since the beginning of the school year because of the confusion of the wage-price freeze, it is my opinion it is the board's duty to recoup those amounts over and above what the teacher's salary would be under the old salary schedule," he concluded.

Supt. of School John O. Pier expressed concern in curtailing the pay increases during the current pay period which ends Friday.

"If we change it now, it will require us changing the quarterly reports to the state (teacher's pension fund and other deductions) and they have already been worked out by the bookkeepers," the administrator said.

Teachers to Repay

Prior questioned whether the pay hikes already paid should be returned to the district over a set period. "Or should we take it out of the last pay period?" he asked the board.

Board Member Fred Rumpf commented, "The teachers knew when we gave them the raise the situation may change

Override Aid Issue; Amend Levee Division

State legislative developments this week include a 35-8 Senate vote Tuesday to override Gov. Ogilvie's veto on a bill that would set a one-year residence requirement for welfare recipients. The issue next goes to the House.

A bill by Representatives Calvo, Kennedy and Walters to split the East Side Levee & Sanitary District into Quad-City and East St. Louis districts received a "do pass" recommendation yesterday in the Illinois House Executive Committee but a crippling amendment was added. The amendment by Rep. Krause of East St. Louis would maintain the status quo pending appointment of a legislative commission to study separation; six House members and two senators would submit recommendations by Feb. 1.

House Democrats fell three votes short Tuesday of overriding the governor's reduction of state scholarship funds. They said they will try again.

House Speaker W. Robert Rain on Tuesday temporarily blocked a move to call a statewide vote on a constitutional amendment to repeal the governor's new power of amendments by Feb. 1.

House Burglary

The home of Mrs. Helen Hughes, 208 Benton Ave., was burglarized between 8:30 p.m. and midnight, Wednesday. A radio, and a .22 caliber pistol were stolen. Entry was gained through a kitchen window.

When we got a firm opinion from the attorney."

It was agreed to discuss the matter of repayment with faculty representatives and withhold appropriate action until a mutually agreeable decision can be reached.

In other action, the board authorized an $11,300 work contract with R. Dron Electrical Co. to complete electrical wiring and installation of a master panel box in compliance with the state Life-Safety Code.

Approval also was granted board members and administrators to attend the annual convention of the Illinois Association of School Boards in Chicago, Nov. 19, 20 and 21.

Willie Johnson was named official delegate and the Rev. James Bailey, alternate delegate. Both are members of the Venice Board of Education.

William Brandt Quits Pension Board Post

Resignation of William Brandt, Granite City attorney, as a member of the Granite City Police Pension Board, was accepted by the city council in regular meeting Tuesday night.

Notice of the resignation was given by the council by Mayor Donald Partney who remarked that Brandt, as an attorney, is representing a policeman who is expected to file suit against the pension board and, possibly, the city.

"He can't wear two hats," Partney said of Brandt.

The mayor later explained that Brandt is representing Richard Bell who is seeking a retirement pension on the basis of an injury suffered in 1963, but which Bell claims has become aggravated in recent months, and entitles him to a full-time retirement pension. The pension board rejected Bell's retirement application, the mayor said.

MORE ABOUT OK Mail

provide adequate information for cost estimates. Projected costs will be required before a public hearing on the proposed plan. The Board of Local Improvements will set the assessments in an amount necessary to pay the building cost, but it cannot do so until that cost is finalized.

Phase B engineering and planning, for which the city will be required to approve additional fees later, will involve a series of field surveys to determine existing right-of-way, pertinent vehicular traffic information, location of utility poles, fire hydrants, manholes and other structures, and to determine street elevation and cross sections.

Phase C of the project will be preparation of detailed construction plans and specifications and Phase D will consist of general supervision and inspection of actual construction.

Following the council's approval of engineering fees for Phase A, Mayor Partney said the Board of Local Improvements will sign the work agreement with the Bartholomew firm immediately so that it may begin preparation of preliminary plans. He said it is possible that a public hearing can be called within the next three weeks.

A motion by Alderman Norn to approve the $360 fee for the first phase drew opposition from Alderman R. E. Robertson who said that while he favored the mail project, he believed the project was the responsibility of the Board of Local Improvements and not the council.

Mayor Partney pointed out to Robertson that the city council was the only body that could approve the engineering fees and that it was necessary to obtain preliminary plans and cost estimates before the improvement assessments. Partney noted that the city, upon inception of the project, agreed to pay 50 percent of the project's share. He said part of this fund will be paid with motor fuel tax benefits belonging to the improvement of streets.

The motion to provide engineering fees carried unanimously.

federal and state grants—50% of the cost from the federal government and about 30% in state grants. This means that Granite City will put up about $3 million of the overall cost.

The city has reached an agreement with the township group seeking the grant for city treatment facilities to handle sewage from the three townships conveyed to the treatment plant through interceptors built by the township group. Under that agreement, the townships would provide the city about $80,000 in advance payments for treatment fees.

Mayor Partney said he plans to meet with the township representatives within the next week or two to determine if it is possible for that project to get under way immediately. If that were possible the city could obtain the advance funds and with those funds finance the balance of its sewer engineering work without the necessity of long delays.

'Copter Carrier Brings Thunderflash Jet to Park; Memorial to Servicemen

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

Casual observers believed their eyes were playing tricks and took a second hard look when a sleek jet fighter-bomber appeared in the sky above Granite City Monday.

Just a slender thread separated the two aircraft, or so it seemed to those glancing upward to where the F-84F high-altitude fighter hung suspended beneath the CH-54 Sky Crane 'copter.

The arrival at 3:30 p.m. Monday of the misnamed duo above Wilson Park culminated four years of patient waiting, months of wading through mountains of red tape, numerous promises and disappointments and lots of improvising when duly considered plans went astray.

The F-84F Thunderflash eventually will be positioned in a permanent location at Wilson Park as a tribute to the men of Granite City who are or have been members of the Armed Forces.

Dedication Oct. 30
Quad-City Avnests Post 51 secured the jet-propelled fighter-bomber and will formally dedicate the plane to the Granite City Park District in public dedicatory ceremonies Oct. 30.

On a heavy rain, the plane's arrival, delayed more than five hours due to limited visibility, was Steve Konkovich, public relations officer of the local Avnests post who spearheaded efforts to obtain the aircraft. Post 51 Commander Sanders, and Leo Clements of Granite City, Illinois Avnests vice commander.

Many interested observers ringing the perimeter of the landing zone found it necessary to turn their backs during the final moments of descent when clouds of dust and pebbles were kicked up by the whirling blades of the huge 'copter as it touched down.

Kansas Guard 'Copter
Donated by the U. S. Air Force, the F-84F Thunderflash was airlifted here from Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, by a giant "sky crane" helicopter belonging to the Kansas Army National Guard.

The heavy-lift (CH-54) chopper, piloted by Captain Ray W. Wilchis, of Wichita, Kan., was brought from the Kansas Guard's base at Topeka especially to airlift the 12,000-pound plane.

Other members of the specialty crew were Warrant Officers Roger C. Coffey and William White and Specialist 6 Jim Kauffman, all of the Kansas Army National Guard.

The plan was to land the helicopter's engines caused many Quad-Cityans to glance upward as the two-piece apparatus approached, moving at a steady 17 mph.

A preliminary run made at 9 a.m. Monday, resulted in the delayed arrival time when poor visibility and threatening weather were found in the area.

The 'copter crew returned here at 2:15 p.m. and decided a successful "drop" could be accomplished.

Operational until a few months ago, the F-84F was flown from Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio.

Technicians of the 375th Aero-Medical Airfield Wing at Scott AFB, Mo., are working on removing the turboprop engine, a 30 caliber machine guns and other components.

The men also resealed and painted the plane before the Army Guard helicopter collected it for its final flight.

Avnests Post 51 initiated efforts to secure a T-33 jet trainer nearly five years ago with the thought of situating the aircraft as a memorial to veterans at the Post Home, 5100 Lakeview Drive.

On April 1, U. S. Cong. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) notified post officials that T-33 planes were no longer available, but he enclosed a letter from Colonel Betram A. Kibler Jr., U.S.A.F. Inspector General stating that a few F-84F fighters were scheduled to be released within 30 to 90 days.

Space A Problem
Konkovich immediately replied that the fighter-bomber was more than acceptable, but soon afterwards discovered the space allotted at the post home was insufficient for the plane's 43½-foot length and 33½-foot wing span.

After explaining his plight to the Granite City Park Board, the commissioners agreed to accept the plane and locate it in Wilson Park.

Finding a permanent home for the plane was a great relief. Konkovich said but troubles were only just beginning.

The Air Force agreed to fly the F-84F from Wright-Patterson AFB to Scott AFB.

Colonel Delbert L. Mueller, U.S.A.F. deputy commander for Materiel at Scott, said the 375th Aero-Medical Airfield Wing "would be happy to demilitarize the plane," but how to move it to Granite City was another matter.

Transferring the aircraft via flatbed, even with the promise of assistance from Scott AFB civil engineers was unfeasible.

Appeal to Army
Col. Mueller suggested an appeal to the U. S. Army Aviation Systems Command for an Army helicopter to airlift the plane may be the answer and his counsel was welcomed by the local Avnests.

Written communications and telephone calls grew thick with the heavy between Konkovich and the Army and Air Force officials, reaching up the chain of command all the way to Washington, D. C.

HELP BLINDING GIRL
Girl Scout leading were spotlighted during the weekend as Junior Troop 492, meeting with Mrs. S. Kipp Kidman, made plans to donate to the Wilma Chestnut fund with the profit from its annual calendar sales. The girl has been permanently blinded.

Three committees were formed for a father-and-daughter Halloween party Oct. 23 at the Kirkpatrick recreation center. Invitations were made and patrols were assigned duties: Rose patrol, gnomes, Cinderella food and Pink Panthers, shopping in a costume parade prizes will be awarded in three categories.

The program closed with singing of "Taps" and Aaron Werner gave the scoutmaster's prayer. The Pink Panthers went to The Colonades nursing home to visit the troop's adopted grandmother. Others present were Debbie Hamilton, Carol Ann Kidman, Janet Nunes, Robin Saltgaver, Rhonda Crouch, Tammy Smith, Dawn Glass, Christy Peach and Jackie and Susan Thomas.

INDIAN MISSION AID
The Phebean Bible Class of Calvary Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Knight, 1923 Benton St., for its October meeting Tuesday. The teachers, Mrs. Stella Rushing, gave opening prayer and led singing.

The assistant vice-president, Mrs. Ora Cruise, was in charge and the group answered roll call with Scripture verses. Reports were given and Mrs. Lorna Hutson read a financial statement.

Mrs. Beatrice Henry reported on cards sent in September and the class discussed sending clothing to an Indian Mission and canned goods to a mission.

Mrs. Knight gave the devotional, taken from the 24th Psalm, and read three poems. Mrs. Cruise read a poem, "Farmer's Wife."

Mrs. Rushing and Mrs. Knight sang a duet, "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be," and the dismissal prayer was by Mrs. Hutson. The hostess served refreshments. The next meeting is Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Gussie Hessman, 2317 Winters Drive.

MRS. WALSH ENTERTAINS
Mrs. Ann Walsh, 3016 Forest Ave., was hostess for the October meeting of the Once-A-Month Card Club in her home Tuesday evening. High score winners during a social hour were Mrs. Marlene Johnson and Mrs. Jo Ann Yetter. Mrs. Helen Schwendemann was awarded a consolation prize.

The hostess served refreshments to the recipients and Mrs. C. A. Coppedge, Mrs. Sharon Shafer and a guest, Mrs. Barbara Ledbetter.

More than a few calls also were exchanged between park district officers, the Press-Record and the persistent Avnests member until the Kansas Army National Guard consented to fly in their super 'copter and specialist crew for the job.

Arrangements to transfer the plane here on Veterans Day were scotched by the Kansas Guard team who preferred fewer people around when the airlift was effected. The crew noted that blades on the mammoth chopper generate turbulence equal to 90 mph winds.

Crew Visits Post
Their target date was set for Monday and the crew arrived Sunday evening and enjoyed the hospitality of the Avnests post before heading for billets at Scott AFB.

Konkovich's part in getting the plane to Granite City was not over yet, it was learned.

The enormous technical skills and knowledge which permitted the Quad-Cities' newest memorial to be lifted here finally were aided by one of man's most down-to-earth products—a sack of flour.

Inspecting the Wilson Park landing area early Monday morning, Konkovich thought of a large white cross created with powdered lime to mark the site was too indistinct for the chopper crew to spot in the overcast weather.

The local Avnests hurriedly went to a nearby store, purchased a sack of flour and spread the contents on top of the previous markings to better define the target zone for the approaching 'copter crew.

Collision Results in Right-of-Way Ticket
Autos operated by David V. Fox, 2326 Erin Drive and Roger D. Gibson, 4923 Carl St., collided at the intersection of St. Clair and Myrtle avenues at 5:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Gibson, 18, was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way at an intersection. A passenger in his car, Karla Fields, 18, of 2210 E. 21st St., sustained minor injuries, police reported.

Juveniles Arrested
Two 16-year-old Granite City boys were arrested and referred to juvenile authorities at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday after they were seen carrying a new battery, allegedly stolen from an auto on a Norfolk & Western Railroad car siding near 25th Street.

The auto of Charles Milton, 2414 Madison Ave., was damaged by fire at 12:10 p.m. Tuesday. Firemen said spilled gasoline was responsible for the flames. Milton had extinguished the flames when firemen arrived.

City to Invoke Law Banning Open Burning from Sunset to Sunrise

Open burning of any kind, including leaves and limbs, will be banned in Granite City between sunset and sunrise under a city law that officials said has been on the books for many years.

City council members, noting that the statewide open burning regulation comes at a time when the city is unprepared to make additional trash pickups, decided Tuesday night to "let the people alone" in burning leaves and limbs, but to invoke a long-standing city ordinance that prohibits burning between sunset and sunrise.

The decision followed a move by Alderman Thomas Boker to instruct the city attorney to bring in an ordinance setting specific daylight hours in which residents could burn leaves, limbs and brush. He suggested burning be permitted between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. even though this permission would be in violation of the open burning ban announced by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

During the discussion, an alderman said he was certain that an open burning ordinance already is in the municipal code and found the ordinance. "Since we have such a law, who would be responsible for its enforcement?" Boker asked. Aldermen agreed the code would be enforced by "the city administration."

"Then I call for enforcement of the law from now on," Boker said. Boker also requested that the council's Sanitation Committee, of which Alderman William Dallas is chairman, join with the Air Pollution Committee, headed by Alderman Steve Basarich, to work on a program for expansion of sanitary collection services to include leaves and limbs in 1972. Basarich and Boker both told the council that enforcement of the EPA statewide ban on open burning "is going to come and we had better get ready for it." The city has no funds under its current budget to expand sanitation pickup service which is handled by Milam-East Corp. on an annual contract basis.

Housing Boom Here Forecast

A residential construction boom is certain by the mid-1970s and a prime area will be the Quad-Cities and other Illinois areas to the east, Jack Wright predicted in a talk to Granite City Rotarians Tuesday.

District sales manager of National Homes, the speaker said the western fringe of the St. Louis-St. Louis County area has filled in more solidly and its future growth to the west will be limited by travel time and traffic congestion.

He spoke and showed photo slides on prefabricated homes, which he noted can be assembled on a site in one day, with interior finishing then proceeding under protection from the weather. Such homes are being built at a yearly rate of 325,000, compared to 200,000 a decade ago, Wright said. He was introduced by Carl Speckling, Product Albert H. Froemling presided.

East St. Louis Flyers Invade GCHS Saturday

The East St. Louis Flyers, leading the Southwestern Conference with a perfect 2-0 league record and a perfect 5-0 overall record, invade Granite City to take on the Warriors at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Falling beneath the bone-crushing power of the Flyers have been Soltan 16-8, Lincoln 15-7, Alton 19-0, Thornridge 28-0 and Edwardsville 13-0.

The Flyers have a new coach, Cornelius Perry, who was the sophomore coach at East St. Louis for the past five years.

Fred Cameron after 16 seasons and 122 victories retired last year. Perry is only the third head football coach at East St. Louis in 33 years. Wirt Downing served for 16 years prior to Cameron.

Perry, a 1982 Flyer graduate, was a good football player himself, running 1,123 yards, and scoring 167 points in two seasons.

Due to a 12-week teachers strike, the Flyers could only play five games last year but had a respectable 4-1 record.

With 17 returning lettermen, Perry's first year has been made easier, even though they did not get a full season under their belts last year.

"We are a power running team," Coach Perry told the Press-Record. "We are going to pass, occasionally, to keep people honest."

Press-Record Sports

Page 6 Thurs., Oct. 21, 1971

Physically and mentally the Flyers are in fine shape, and no one will be out of the lineup due to injuries Saturday.

The Flyers have been doing their home work, with scouts checking on the Warriors during the Belleville East, Collinsville and Althoff games.

"Granite City has a very impressive defense. They seem to have had some problems with the offense, but it looks like they got themselves together. Our game Saturday will be a good contest. Who wins will depend simply on who wants to win hard enough to play hard football," Perry said.

Flyer Quarterback Verdel Jones, 194, senior, wearing No. 17, has an accurate passing arm and gained 300 yards throwing in two games. He also is a strong runner.

The Warriors will need to keep a good eye on split end George Slack, 176, senior, wearing number 85, as Slack receives most of the passes Jones tosses.

Cortez Ward, 213, senior, halfback, number 38, has gained about 500 yards in five games. Two other offensive backfielders for the Flyers the Floyd Cobb, 173, senior, at fullback, and Robert Moore, 169, junior, at right half.

The defensive backs will be led by Harvey Gordon, 164, senior, Robert Duncan, 142, senior, James Giles, 163, senior, and William M. Merrweather, 154, senior.

The Warriors may be hurt some by injuries. Gary Lively, fullback, and Tom Kalert, center, may both be out of action. Jim Childers, end, goes to the doctor Friday, and the outcome of the visit will determine if he goes back on the field.

"East St. Louis is good, but they are not unbeatable," Warrior Football Coach Wayne Williams said.

"The winner Saturday is going to depend on mental attitude," he said. "We can win if the team wants to badly enough. The Flyers are big, strong and fast."

"Jim Robbins has done real good jobs as fullback in place of Lively."

"We have beaten East St. Louis before and were going to beat them again," Williams said.

Cougars Win, 3-0

The SIU-SW soccer Cougars, sixth ranked nationally, defeated visiting Eastern Illinois 3-0 Tuesday and will play at Quincy College Saturday.

John Carena scored all three goals, on a pass from brother Chris Carena at 1:25 of the second period, on a penalty kick at 9:21 of the second period and on another penalty kick at 21:47 of the final period. The Cougars led in shots at the goal, 36-16.

SIU-SW now has a 5-0 record and Eastern is 2-3-1, having bowed 2-1 to Quincy. Carena has scored 11 goals in the Cougars' six games.

Boycott Postpones Soccer Game Here

A scheduled soccer game here Tuesday between Granite City High School and Hancock High School of Lemay, Mo., was postponed when most of the Hancock players threatened to boycott the game.

Only six Hancock players indicated they would be willing to play because of a dispute between the coach and the team.

On Saturday, the Warrior sophomore players are to travel to Lemay for a duel there, if the differences between the coach and the team are resolved.

Trojans Face Mater Dei Wishbone T Offense Friday

When the Madison Trojans travel to face the Mater Dei Knights at Breese, Ill., Friday night at 7:30 p.m., they will be facing a relatively new offensive formation known as the "Wishbone T," a brainchild of Darrell Royal, of Texas.

Wayne Williams, the Granite City grid coach, introduced the wishbone in this area last year and used it effectively.

The Wishbone T is being used this season by the Knights' new football mentor 25-year-old Gary Schopp, who has been an assistant coach, for three years, at Grayslake, Ill., located near the Wisconsin border. Schopp was a four-year letterman at Northwestern University.

One of the prime prerequisites for running the wishbone is an experienced quarterback. "You have to have a good quarterback," said Schopp. "In the wishbone, the quarterback has to make several options, and he has to be able to really sprint and think fast."

The wishbone tends to about the same old play. It looks like the old fullback T formation, but the middle man (the fullback) is moved up a yard.

On every play, the fullback leads right for the guard's outside foot. The tackle and de-

Jeff Hemann, 6-0, 160, senior, will be the quarterback handling the Knights' wishbone. This year he has gained 650 yards throwing in only five games, resulting in six TDs. Last season Hemann threw 860 yards. Hemann started seven games as a sophomore, and played every game last year.

With Hemann at the backfield will be Tony Mantucci, a quick, 5-2, 180, senior, and Robin Stanfa, 5-9, 170, junior, both running backs; and Ralph Renschler, 6-1, 196, senior, at fullback. Renschler caught 20 passes for four touchdowns in the first two games, before he broke his collarbone, last season, and is passing a similar threat this season.

The Knights have a 3-2 won-loss record to date, beating Greenville 14-8, Mascoutah 14-6, and Marquette, of Alton, 20-6. They have lost to Mt. Vernon 40-14 and Triad 19-18. Last year, Breese was 7-2 and defeated the Trojans 40-6.

The Knights use a pro type multiple defense. So far they have gained 270 yards, with seven interceptions, seven sacks, and an even split between running and passing.

The Knights offense will be Jim Englemann, 6-0, 190, junior, center; Joe Todoroff, 5-10, 169, junior, left guard; Ken Pollman, 5-11, 165, junior, right guard; Dale Herbst, 6-6, 150, senior, right tackle; Lyle Eiling, 6-1, 165, junior, left tackle; Mike Bruegge, 6-2, 195, senior, right end; and Brad Hemann, 6-1, 185, junior, left end.

The front four Knights, on their 4-4 defensive alignment, will be Bruegge, Gary Gersier, 6-4, 225, senior, Mary Holmank, 5-10, 175, senior, and Mike Ribbing, 6-2, 180, junior. Linebackers will be Renschler and Paul Vonnahme, 5-9, 170, junior, on the inside. Outside linebackers will be Mike Arentsen, 5-10, 170, junior, and Jerry Timmerman, 5-9, 170, senior.

Playing the secondary will be Hemann, Steve Humphrey, 5-10, 150, senior, and Arnie Hens, 5-9, 160, senior.

Richard Tebbis, 6-0, 200, senior tackle for Breese, will be out of action against the Trojans, as he was hurt in the Mascoutah game.

"We scouted Madison when they played Eureka and were impressed with Chandler. We'll aim our defense at Chandler, and play from there," Coach Schopp said.

Trojan Head Football Coach Al Vander Haar told the Press-Record, "We're going to shuffle the lineup some. We are still not clicking. Our running game is still not perfected."

"Mater Dei will run from the wishbone, and we're going to need to play head-up football, as this causes a difficult defense, and we still need a lot of work on our pass defense."

Both the Trojans and Mater Dei play independent schedules.

Cougars Shut Out Eastern Illinois

Southern Illinois University's soccer team ran its record to 5-0-1 Tuesday at Southwestern with a 3-0 victory over Eastern Illinois University.

It was an All-American scoring effort by SIU-SW's John Carena, which paced the Cougars to the fourth shutout of the season. Big John scored all three goals. The first came a minute into the second period on a pass from brother, Chris. Eight minutes later, Carena booted in the first of two direct penalty goals he netted in the game.

His second penalty goal came with 13 seconds remaining in the contest. The 6'4" striker hit the ball into the net. Eastern Illinois has registered so far this campaign and 5 out of 6 goals the Cougars have scored in their last two games.

Said Fritz Teller, coach of Eastern Illinois University after the game, "On the basis of SIU-SW's game against us today, and John Carena's play, I would have to pick the Cougars to beat Quincy College and St. Louis University." Teller's Panthers lost to Quincy College 2-1 and to St. Louis 2-0.

SIU-SW meets Quincy Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at Quincy and plays St. Louis University Nov. 6. The Cougars will return home next week for two games meeting the University of Jacksonville, Fla. Thursday at 4 p.m. and the University of Wisconsin, Kenosha, Saturday at Cougar Field, in the annual home coming game.

ALL THE FISH YOU CAN EAT FRIDAY, $1.29 AT GRANTS

Three officers of the Granite City Association for Retarded Children returned this week from the 22nd annual convention of the National Association for Retarded Children (NARC) held at the Hilton Hotel in Denver, Colo.

Local delegates were Mrs. Hazel Kynion, GCAR president; Mrs. Evelyn Gavin, executive director; and Mrs. Audrey Lewis, secretary.

The women joined nearly 2,000 parents and professionals concerned with the welfare of the mentally retarded who took part in the convention. Delegates represented 1,500 member units of the national association. U. S. Senator Robert Dole, chairman of the Republican National Committee, delivered the keynote address at the opening session.

U. S. Senator Hubert H. Humphrey was the principal speaker at the association's "President's luncheon," and John D. Twinn, administrator of BEW's Social and Rehabilitation Service, addressed delegates at the NARC's convention banquet.

Played Key Roles
All three major speakers at the conference have played key roles in forwarding the needs of the nation's mentally retarded, the local members reported.

Workshops, addresses and special sessions were scheduled on a wide variety of subjects, including education and employment of the mentally retarded and the relationship of poverty to mental retardation.

A special guest at the convention banquet was Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey, a past recipient of NARC's Distinguished Service Award.

Twenty-one years of achievement were commemorated at the 1971 meeting with the theme, "The Future is Now," underlining the association's emphasis on its role in the challenging decade of the 1970s. The convention's opening session focused upon this topic, detailing action programs designed to be implemented by local Associations for Retarded Children across the country.

One-to-One Concept
A program on "Citizen Advocacy," the concept of one citizen representing the needs of a mentally retarded person on a one-to-one basis, was presented by Dr. Wolf Wolfensberger, visiting scholar, the National Institute on Mental Retardation, Toronto, Canada.

Among those honored were Miss Bonnie Cook, 9-year-old 1971 NARC poster child and Mrs. Henry Mancini, wife of the composer-conductor. Entertainment was provided by both the U. S. Air Force Academy Band and the Cadet Chorale. NARC was founded 21 years ago by a group of concerned adults to help improve services, programs and facilities for the mentally retarded. It is a voluntary organization comprising 224,000 individual members in 1,500 member units.

SPECIALIZED SERVICES PROGRAM AT GCAR MEET

David Parish of Specialized Services Inc., will be guest speaker and present a program of slides showing training and other activities at local work centers, at the Granite City Association for Retarded Children meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday at St. John United Church of Christ.

A report concerning programs and recommendations at the annual convention of the National Association for Retarded Children, held in Denver, Colo., and attended by three local delegates, also will be presented, the officer said.

MR. AND MRS. HERSHEL BECKER, whose marriage took place Oct. 15 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Mrs. Becker is the former Miss Mary Ann Kazman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kazman of Granite City.

Becker-Kazman Wedding At Sacred Heart Church

Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding Oct. 15 of Miss Mary Ann Kazman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kazman, 2372 E. 27th St., and Hershel Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Becker, 825 E. Main St., Belleville.

A 7 o'clock double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel Flynn. Arrangements of white floral bouquets adorned the altar and white satin bows and white aisle cloth decorated the church.

The theme from "Romeo and Juliet" was played by Miss Theresa Bregen, organist, preceding the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pure white, floor length gown of sate-peau fashioned with an Empire bodice, featuring a yoke of Venice lace with a high neckline. The long full sleeves were cuffed with bands of matching lace and repeated at the wrists.

Each attendant carried a nosegay of orchid tipped white carnations.

Little Angela Moore, flower girl, wore a floor length frock similar to the attendants and carried a white basket of rose petals.

Peter Moore was the ring-bearer.

Attending the groom as best man was Robert Martin. John Adams, Bruce Gaston, a brother-in-law of the groom, Steve Becker, the groom's brother, Alex Bregen and Dale Betts completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Mrs. Kazman selected a pastel pink dress designed with ruffled cuffs and hemline and matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a dress in deep blue crepe and her accessories were in the same shade. Both wore white orchid corsages.

A reception was given at the Knights of Columbus Hall immediately following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker entertained members of the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner at Petri's Cafe. Mrs. John Adams attended the guest book at the reception.

The former Miss Kazman, a 1969 graduate of Granite City High School, is employed as a bookkeeper at SIU-SW.

TOTAL GC, ALTON SCHOOL COSTS ABOUT THE SAME

To the Editor:

In a letter to the editor printed in the Oct. 4 issue of the Press-Record, the following question was raised:

"Would the Granite City School Board please explain to the local taxpayers why our school budget is an overwhelming $22,900,000 while Alton, a city of comparable size and approximately the same number of students, has a school budget of $13,000,000?"

In order to explain this, a thorough comparison of the Alton and Granite City budgets was made. The two figures mentioned were not evident.

A total of the Educational Building, Bond and Interest, Transportation and Municipal Retirement Funds amounts to a total of $14,960,816 for Alton and $16,710,969 for Granite City on a cash basis.

Site and Construction would add a total of $5,420,000 for Alton and $4,654,684 for Granite City.

If the writer will identify the sources of figures quoted, further comparison can be made.

ONALD W. STUCKE, Treasurer, Community Unit School District No. 9

This Week in America's History

1771—North Carolina, where the first English settlements had been attempted between 1584 and 1587, adopted its first constitution of European parentage. Virginia Dare, was born at Roanoke Island in 1587, had developed slowly, chiefly after 1709, but had become a separate royal province in 1729.

It had three signers of the Declaration of Independence in 1776: Joseph Hewes, William Hooper and John Penn, all of whom had moved to North Carolina as young men.

Joseph Hewes, born in New Jersey, had been apprenticed to a Philadelphia merchant, and moved to Edenton, N.C., at 30, to become a successful merchant himself.

He became a member of the committee of correspondence in 1773, opposing British administrative policies; a member of the first provincial congress in 1775, and a delegate to the Continental Congress in 1774-1777.

There, in addition to signing the Declaration, he served on the naval affairs committee and brought John Paul Jones to the service of the newly formed navy.

Elected again to the Congress in 1779, he died during that session at Philadelphia, aged 49.

William Hooper, born in Boston and educated at Harvard College, also studied law with James Otis.

In 1765, at age 25, he moved to Wilmington, N.C.

He became a member of the North Carolina General Assembly, worked effectively in opposition to British policies in the colonies, and was a member of the Continental Congress in 1774-1777.

In the practice of law at Wilmington, he left there in 1781 when the city was occupied by the British, and made his home in Hillsboro, where he died in 1790, at 48.

John Penn, the third North Carolina signer of the Declaration, unrelated to the Penns of Pennsylvania, had been born in Virginia, where he began a successful law career in 1762.

He moved to North Carolina in 1774, when he was still a member of the Continental Congress in 1775-1776, reelected for the 1778-1780 period.

On the British invasion of North Carolina in 1780, he was placed in charge of the state by the colonial assembly, with almost dictatorial powers in organizing its defense, and served well.

In 1778 he was to be collector of taxes for a short time, but resigned to return to private life. He died a few weeks later, at 47.

1821—Out of 1,634 newspapers of title, mostly weekly, established in the area of the United States between the first, in 1704, and 1820, only four had lasted 50 years or more.

One, established in 1754 as the Connecticut Courant, later to become the daily Hartford Courant, and four others, established in 1851 as the oldest existing newspaper in the United States, now in its 217th year.

Rudolph Virchow born in Pomerania, to become German pathologist and anthropologist, and founder about 1858 of the science of cellular pathology.

1871—William Marcy Tweed, leader of Tammany Hall, in New York City, arrested on charges of defrauding the city of from $75 million to $200 million, as revealed earlier by the New York Times.

He was to be convicted in 1872, and sentenced, but escaped from jail in 1875, to flee to Cuba, but was returned and died in jail in 1876.

Filing to Open Nov. 1 for County Board Primary

Petitions for candidacy to the 29 county board posts for which party nominations will be made in a primary election Feb. 8 have been made available by the county clerk's office at Edwardsville, and will be received for filing beginning Nov. 1, according to County Clerk Eustalia Holtz.

The last day for filing nominating petitions will be Nov. 8 at 5 p.m. under the present law. Miss Holtz pointed out that legislation to consolidate a number of elections scheduled in 1972 is now being considered by the Illinois General Assembly and changes in filing arrangements could result. The election of county board members from 29 restricted areas will be held in April.

The 1972 party primary for nomination of national, state, district and local candidates now is scheduled in March, but efforts are underway in the legislature to change this election to an April date. The 1972 regular general elections will be held as usual in November.

Candidates for the county board primary will require signatures equivalent to one-half of one percent of the highest vote cast in the last general election for a Democratic candidate and a Republican candidate. On this basis Democratic candidates will need a minimum of 200 signatures and Republican candidates will require a minimum of 137.

Town Bills Approved In Council Session

The Granite City Council, meeting Tuesday night as the Town Board, approved payment of $4,276 in town fund bills and general assistance fund bills of $7,110 for the last half of October.

Of the total bills ordered paid in the town fund, $3,089 was for salaries and the remainder was for services, supplies and fees.

Salaries of $1,042 and bills totaling $1,355 for services were approved in the general assistance fund. Other bills approved from general assistance included $3,922 for food, $270 for rent, $452 for prescriptions and $52 for fuel.

An audit report showed disbursements of $35,495 in the fund during the current financial year. Deposits included $19,934 in taxes and $2,054 from the second partial county tax collection. The balance in the fund on Oct. 1 was $89,815.

Disbursements from the town fund during September totaled $7,969. Deposits included $15,750 from the final town tax collection and $1,971 from the second partial county collection. The balance on Oct. 1 totaled $32,285.

Deposits in the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund from the final town collection totaled $1,880 in September and $195 was added from the second partial county collection. The deposits, added to a previous balance of $7,722, brought total cash available during the month to $9,811. Disbursements in September of $1,164 left a cash balance Oct. 1 of $8,646.

Ill. Power Bond, Stock Offering

An underwriting group managed by The First Boston Corp. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc., is today offering $35,000,000 of Illinois Power Co. first mortgage bonds, 7.69% Series due 2001, and 600,000 shares of Illinois Power common stock (without par value).

The first mortgage bonds are offered at 100% plus accrued interest from Oct. 1, 1971. The common stock is offered at $35.25 per share.

Interest on the bonds is payable April 1, 1972, and semi-annually thereafter on Oct. 1 and April 1. The bonds are not redeemable prior to Nov. 1, 1976, through certain refunding operations. Otherwise, they are redeemable at a schedule of prices.

Illinois Power is engaged primarily in the generation, transmission, distribution and sale of electric energy and the distribution and sale of natural gas in Illinois.

Proceeds from sale of the $35,000,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, series due 2001, and 600,000 shares of common stock will initially become part of the general funds of the company, and thereafter be applied either to the repayment of outstanding short-term bank loans or commercial paper, or to new construction, or both.

The sale of either the bonds or the new common stock is not contingent on the sale of the other.

Illinois Power Co. reported net income of $42,021,964 on total operating revenues of $200,433,425 for the year ended Dec. 31, 1970. That compared with net income of $37,967,543 on operating revenues of $212,860,568 for the year ended Dec. 31, 1969.

For the 12 months ended Aug. 31, 1971, the company reports net income of $38,065,379 on total operating revenues of $240,577,863.

Seminar at Normal for High School Seniors

Illinois State University is becoming the first public university in Illinois to sponsor its own merit scholarships.

These need-related four-year awards will go to Illinois high school seniors who scored in the top one-half of one per cent in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test and who name ISU as their first-choice college.

On Sunday, Oct. 24, the university will have a "Seminar for Scholars" with 125 high school seniors and parents expected.

Alumni of ISU have offered to provide funds for the awards as well as for two "super" scholarships—full costs for four years—to be awarded to students on the basis of academic potential and personal history.

SOCIETY

Work Together for Strong PTA, Official Tells Webster Parents

Richard Hulise, director of District 29, Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, was principal speaker at a regular meeting of Webster School PTA Tuesday night.

In his topic, "The Importance of Working Together for a Strong PTA," Hulise stressed the value of strong PTA units working together for a better area council. He also discussed legislation concerning schools currently before the Illinois Congress.

Mrs. Shirley Tervasi, president, opened the meeting, and reports were given by Mrs. Peggy Herzog, secretary and Mrs. Mary Veloff, treasurer. The president expressed appreciation to those assisting with the annual "Spook Carnival" and especially to Mrs. Vicki Gibson who served as chairman of the successful project.

Eugene Gunderson was elected vice-president and members voted to purchase conservation books from the PTA Area Council to place in each classroom.

Gunderson and Mrs. Ann Townsend were appointed to secure a public address system for the school.

Mrs. Tervasi reported that tickets still remain for the "afghan" project, with the winner to be announced at the Nov. 8 meeting when an open house will take place at the school.

Principal Clyde Lee announced the classroom award was won by Louis Mehelec with the largest number of parents present at the meeting. Mrs. Lucy Link received the special award.

GOP Women to Host Open Meeting

The Republican Women's Service League has completed plans for an open meeting Nov. 17 at Burns' Cafeteria when three members of the Illinois Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie's staff will be the featured speakers.

Details were finalized at a meeting of the club held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Earl J. Meek, president. Tickets for the event will cost $1 and all proceeds will be donated to the Tri-City Mental Health Day Care Center. Persons under 18 years of age will be admitted free.

A dance was set for January to aid the Granite City crippled children's fund. Members also are preparing a booklet on Madison County Republican Women's Clubs and GOP elected officials, it was announced.

Mrs. Jane Reese gave a report on the Madison County Federation of Republican Women's Clubs' fall luncheon she attended when Sheriff Dave O'Neal of St. Clair County was the speaker.

After the business session, club members attended the Edwardsville Republican Women's Club meeting and heard State Representative Robert J. Walters of Alton and view a film on "Legislative Procedure in Springfield."

Tree Planting in Venice Planned

Mrs. Margaret Lee announced the beautification committee of the Women's Division, Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities, will plant 52 trees on Broadway in Venice. The planting probably will start next week, she informed members of the organization who met Tuesday evening at Sunset Hill Holiday Inn.

Mrs. Jo Meyer, past president, was in charge of the meeting and introduced the guest speaker, William S. Breneman, a forestry representative for the Illinois Power Co. in Decatur.

Breneman discussed tree planning and planting for the home and community. He listed points for the home owner to consider when selecting trees or shrubs for yard beautification.

The speaker also pointed out that trees should never be planted too close to the house or under service wires entering the home. He concluded the presentation with slides of trees during the spring and fall showing the change in foliage colors.

Legion Auxiliary Selects Delegates

Henry Mitchell American Legion Auxiliary, Post 799, chose delegates to attend the Legion's 22nd district meeting, set Sunday in Waterloo, at the unit's regular session Monday evening.

Those who will represent the Madison Post at the district conference include Mrs. Amanda Coleman, unit president, Mrs. Maggie Cannon, Mrs. Lula B. Williams, Mrs. Josephine Fletcher, Mrs. Pansy Campbell and Mrs. Gertrude Young.

Plans for a membership drive to start Monday were completed. The auxiliary has a current membership roster of 39 women. Also discussed were a chili supper in December and the post's annual birthday banquet.

Earlier the same evening, members of the Post 799 Junior Auxiliary met with Diane Garrett, president, in charge. Projects for the coming year were discussed, including a "queen contest" in February.

Two Men Arrested on Auto Theft Charge

Two men were arrested at 1:18 a.m. today on charges of possession of burglary tools and attempted auto theft when the pair returned to a car parked in the 4000 block of Vesel Avenue.

Taken into custody at the scene were Thomas Michael Roach, 21, of 813 E. Chain of Rocks Road, and Steven Edward Pence, 20, of 100 Central Ave., Mitchell. Both men were charged with possession of burglary tools and attempted auto theft.

Responding to a call that a "suspicious" auto was parked on Vesel Avenue, police approached the area in a squad car without lights and observed two men running from the Ponton Plaza apartment area, between houses and get into the parked auto.

Alerting the men they were police, the officers searched the pair and their auto, and said they found equipment described as burglary tools.

Police also investigated the Ponton Plaza area and found a vehicle with the hood open and a door not completely closed.

Owner of the vehicle, Steve Powers, 2807 Ponton Plaza, told officers the auto had been locked, noting that he had taken the precaution as the vehicle was stolen and recovered only one week ago.

Conduct Charge Filed

Claude Pierce, 54, of 2108 E. 23rd St., was arrested near his home at 2:45 a.m. yesterday and charged with disorderly conduct.

Driveway Extensions Okd for New School

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Plans for a driveway at the new elementary school on Old Alton Road were modified this week after the Granite City Board of Education Monday night authorized an additional $750 to lengthen the drives to the school's rear.

Tully A. Heubner, director of buildings and grounds, informed the board the roadway was farther east than indicated in township plans. If the school drives were installed as planned, he said there would be a 15-foot unpaved area between the roadway and the drives.

He said Albert Bell, Nameo Township Road Commissioner, has agreed to grade and widen the road in front of the school if the drives are extended to the present road surface.

A bid from Lyon Metal Products, Inc., for lockers at the new school was accepted from among four bids submitted. The Lyon bid totaled $5,802.

Other bids were from Storage Systems Inc., $9,155; Mediar Division of Jackson - Evans Manufacturing Co., $9,700; and Republic Steel Corp., Manufacturing Division, $9,251.

Purchase Typewriters

In other business the board authorized the purchase of 35 reconditioned 10-cpm typewriters from the International Business Machines Co., St. Louis, at $300 each, a total of $10,500. The 35 typewriters are to be used by high school typing classes will be traded in on the new models at $150 each, a total of $5,250.

The total authorized for the trade was $6,300, the difference being the price of the reconditioned units and the trade-in.

allowance. B. J. Davis, school superintendent, commented the normal price for the IBM Selectric typewriters is $420 each, and because of the availability of the reconditioned units at the lower price, purchase could be made without competitive bidding.

Contracts totaling $18,213 were awarded to five companies to supply canned goods. The selections were made on the basis of low bid and quality.

Contracts awarded were: Allen Foods, Inc., $4,741; Edray Foods, Inc., $4,482; M. J. Keller Co., $2,002; Litchfield Grocery Co., $6,649; and Switzer, Inc., $338.

Food Purchased

The board authorized the purchase of 200,000 pounds or more of French-fried potatoes from Tarius Meat and Food Products Co., at $4.25 per case, or about 14 cents per pound. The Tarius bid was the lowest of six.

A contract for $701 worth of lumber were awarded to four companies on the basis of low bids. Contracts were: Maryville Lumber Co., $179; Illinois Lumber Co., $165; L. J. Ross, Inc., $330; and Duffin Brothers Lumber, $36.

Recommendation

A recommendation to purchase 38 sheets of polycarbonate plastic to replace windows which have been broken recently, and windows where replacement costs are high, was approved and ACI Plastics Inc., was awarded the contract at $1,591 on the basis of low bid. Other bidders were Cope Plastics Illinois, Inc., $1,714 and Cadillac Plastics, $2,677.

Magazine Subscriptions

A $3,766 contract for 606 magazine subscriptions for 10 schools was awarded to the American Federation of Teachers, Local 743, the board authorized the revision of annuity procedures to allow Mrs. Guy Lahr to receive tax sheltered annuities earned by her while working in Springfield last year.

Bills totaling $38,686 from the educational fund, $10,072 from the building fund and $167 from the joint agreement fund were approved.

Also ordered paid were bills for $90,502 for the new construction fund, $35,778 from the educational fund, $421 from the educational travel fund and $98 from the joint agreement travel fund. Disbursements totaling $61,162 were approved by the board.

Disbursements from activity funds at each school were presented to the board. Totals were: high school, $2,297; Central Junior High School, $405; Grigsby Junior High School, $487; and Prather Junior High School, $320.

Elementary school disbursements from activity funds were: Emerson, $38; Frohardt, $150; Lake, $85; Logan, $6; McKinley, $33; Marshall, $21; Maryville, $6; Mitchell, $31; Nameoki, $153; Niedringhaus, $57; Parkview, $20; Stalling, $7; Webster, $5; and Wilcox, $2.

Hints for Those Whose Husbands Are Hunters

In autumn the ghost of Nimrod, the mighty hunter, stirs in many a husband's heart. Off he will go to the forest with visions of filling the larder with game.

Back he will come, perhaps empty-handed, but certainly to fill your sympathetic ears with tales of muscle strains, cuts, bruises and various other misfortunes that befall him.

The wife who early recognizes her husband's "hunting syndrome" can offset many of these problems if she follows this five-point plan: (1) Insist that your husband go for a medical checkup; (2) Have him get an eye checked; (3) Recommend some pre-conditioning exercises; (4) Provide him with an adequate medical kit; (5) Arrange for him to spend an afternoon before the hunt at a local rifle range.

The medical checkup should include a cardiogram, particularly if he is over 40. It will also provide him with guidelines for the pre-conditioning exercises necessary to develop strength and endurance for "the chase."

In addition to confirming that his eyesight is sound, your eye doctor should check whether your husband is "right-eyed" or "left-eyed." Briefly, in right-handed persons, the left side of the brain is dominant because the nerve fibers from the left cerebral hemisphere cross over to the opposite side at the base of the brain. Since the cross-over is not complete, many of us have varying degrees of ambidexterity.

A simple "home" test can be done by pointing your finger at an object across the room—keeping both eyes open. With the finger still pointing at the object, close the right eye only. If you are "left-eyed" the finger will stay on the object; if you are "right-eyed" it will move to the right of the object. In crowded hunting areas, the difference could be crucial.

Pre-conditioning exercises should be planned with two goals in mind: strength and endurance. A regime of push-ups, toe-touching, deep-knee bends, an sit-ups is excellent—as is jogging or running in place.

Bear in mind that repeating an exercise many times with a light load (weights or a heavy book) will increase endurance, whereas fewer repetitions with a heavier load produce muscular strength.

A good basic medical kit should have a first-aid manual; elastic bandages or surgical tape for binding sprains and strains; an antiseptic for minor cuts; a tube of petroleum jelly for burns and chapped lips; gauze roller bandage; an antacid to relieve stomach distress brought on by his own cooking; aspirin to relieve headaches and aching muscles; and an insect repellent.

Also include tweezers, a small scissors, a few sterile bandage compresses—and a shrill whistle! The latter should be used, together with pre-planned signals, when your husband, the hunter, gets separated from his party.

Experienced hunters regularly practice at local ranges or clubs before undertaking a hunt—and strongly recommend that weekend hunters do likewise. If your community has such a range, urge your husband to spend some time there.

Check your local police department—some make arrangements during hunting season to open their target ranges to sportsmen. In some communities, hunting courses are even supervised by off-duty enforcement personnel.

Of course, this five-point program doesn't guarantee your Nimrod will come home laden with bear. But it will ease your anxieties about his preparedness and, as a result, send your hunter forth in high spirits. And, who knows, this time he may actually come home with something more in the bag than dirty laundry!

And Could Help Senator Percy

Labor Boost Strongly Aids Simon's Governor Campaign

By RAY SERATI
Copy News Service
Why did the Illinois AFL-CIO convention early this month give an unprecedented endorsement to Lt. Gov. Paul Simon in his quest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination?

With this action, the labor organization caused all kinds of rumors to start in the state capital. But probably only one has really caused some heads to nod in agreement, particularly among the statehouse pros.

That rumor with some following is the fact that organized labor leaders don't want Simon of Troy to run against the Republican incumbent U. S. Sen. Charles H. Percy.

Percy, who topped Democratic U. S. Sen. Paul Douglas back in 1968, is expected to announce that he will seek another full six-year term. An announcement by Percy to the contrary would certainly be a surprise to Republican leaders.

When he made his announcement for the gubernatorial post, Simon said he would accept nothing except that spot on the Democratic ticket for 1972. This was regarded by many to mean that Simon was taking himself out of consideration for any other statewide office with the exception of governor.

So, apparently, organized labor leaders wanted to see the Democratic Party leaders along with their chief, Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, that they want Simon for governor.

Those close to the situation say this was done because organized labor is thinking of endorsing or backing the candidacy of Percy. Therefore, organized labor did not want to be placed in a position of choosing between two candidates who have been friendly to labor.

Percy was the only major Republican to address the convention while it was in session in the Capitol City.

If organized labor does endorse Percy it would be a big boost for him. It is no secret that in some quarters of the Republican Party, Percy is in some trouble. This is mainly in the Downstate section of Illinois.

Meanwhile, Simon continues to count up endorsements along with the enjoyment of being in first place in polls taken at various gatherings of Democratic party officials.

In a recent meeting of Democrats in the Decatur area, Simon far out-pollied Auditor Michael J. Howlett, who is also in the running for the Democratic gubernatorial post.

The suspense as to who will be nominated for the post by the regular organization should be ended in late November or early December.

At that time, the party leaders will huddle with Daley and make the big decision.

One candidate, Daniel Walker of Chicago, says he will run with or without the party's blessing. He currently is walking the length of the state.

Better Family Relations Among UF Agency Objectives

For better or for worse, that's how the marriage vow goes. Sometimes it takes a lot of doing on the part of many people to make worse into better.

There are several United Fund agencies that deal with improving the relationships within families to make their lives go from worse to better.

Mary was depressed and came to Family Service Agency through her doctor's referral. She was not getting satisfaction out of her marriage. Mary had an affair with a co-worker and she felt guilty. All along she blamed her husband for their relationship and she feared others would find out about her affair.

"Most people are crippled in relationships because of the emotional investment that creates a lack of objectivity," said Family Service Agency of Southwestern Illinois director Harold Bruns.

"When we go through in the counseling process is to find out where they're at—how they define themselves as people; the state of their relationship; what they are currently getting out of it; and where they want to go. Can the two people agree on objectives for the continuation of the relationship?"

A Last Resort
"Sadly enough, most people come to us when they're ready to break up. These counseling sessions as a last resort," said Mr. Bruns.

"In the case of Mary, she needed a lot of emotional work. Through counseling she came to see herself as part of the problem, and she was again able to communicate with her husband. Mary had grown up. She was no longer so preoccupied with what other people were thinking about her and she was then able to stop punishing herself," said Mr. Bruns.

Antique Collecting

Topic of DAR Meeting

A program on guidelines for collecting antiques was presented by Mrs. Gladys Chapman at a meeting during the weekend of the Drusilla Andrews Chapter, DAR, held in the home of Mrs. Jane Seilheimer, 318 Princeton Drive.

Mrs. Chapman listed four points of the program to include: importance of the age of articles, workmanship, materials used in the articles and rarity of the articles.

The business meeting was opened by Regent Mrs. Mildred Whivers who led the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

During the business session a discussion on future meetings was held and future programs were considered.

Mrs. Seilheimer served refreshments to ten members. The next meeting will be in the home of Miss Nellie Hart, 2805 Iowa St., when the topic will be "American Heritage."

Family Service Agency is working on prevention of marital discord. Through the Family Life Education Program group discussions are held that instruct people on how to be better parents and have a more effective marriage.

The agency provides a full-time worker in the Tri-Cities area who last year counseled 224 local residents. The United Fund is able to pay only a third of the support, however. To supplement their budget the agency has opened a Used Clothing Shop in East St. Louis. Donations can be arranged by calling 397-2542.

Often it is the children of a mismanaged family who need help.

When Jim was 7 years old, his divorced mother packed her bags and walked out. Jim and his three brothers and sisters went to their grandmother's, but she was unable to care for them. In desperation she turned to Catholic Charities. The United Fund agency placed him in a children's home.

In 18 Homes

"That was about 12 years ago. 'Since that time Jim has lived in 18 different homes—we could never obtain legal custody of him. He's a good, clean boy who has never really had any roots. The only parent he's known is the social worker. I spit everything. I think Jim will come out all right,'" said social worker Lorraine Parkinson.

If possible Catholic Charities finds adoptive parents for the child, as it is licensed by the state to do. Many of the babies for whom they find homes are those given by adoption to the unwed mother facilities, St. Monica's Maternity Home, in Springfield.

"When an unwed mother comes to us we discuss whether or not she wishes to keep the child. If she chooses to place the child for adoption we arrange for the maternity home where she can go after her fourth month of pregnancy. Her identity is protected and we arrange mailing addresses in various parts of the country. We also provide family counseling. Some cases are very involved. Catholic Charities tries to help. 'The court gave us custody of a baby whose parents were drug addicts, and we placed the child in a foster home,' said Mrs. Parkinson.

Prospects for Recovery
"My father was cured of his addiction and the child returned to his temporary custody when it was noticed the child had trouble walking. We sent the baby to Children's Hospital where they learned the baby would be a closed artery. Surgery would be fatal. Catholic Charities, through the state Division for Crippled Services, arranged for special petri treatments in New York. Now the baby has good prospects for recovery."

Another agency that places children for adoption is Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society in Alton.

"We help the parents feel comfortable about adoption by arranging for group sessions with other parents who are adopting," said director Mary T. Yowell.

"One of our greatest efforts now is to recruit homes for biracial and older children. Requirements for adoptive parents have changed. You need not own a home, and you may be a working mother. It is not even necessary that you be married. The most important criteria to adopt is that you provide a good atmosphere for the child," said Miss Yowell.

Unwed mothers who come to Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society are cared for by the Salvation Army Booth Memorial Hospital staff in St. Louis where mothers receive counseling and medical care.

In 1970, 130 people in the Tri-Cities area were served by the Society.

Wives Urged to Study Their Family Finances

A wife's unfamiliarity with her husband's financial situation can lead to serious complications in the event of her husband's death, according to Clairen L. Herting, chairman of the estate planning section, Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants.

She advises wives to look into arrangements made for their future, citing statistics showing that, on the average, women live five years longer than men; and also that most wives are younger than their husbands.

"These facts," Mrs. Herting says, "support the point that a woman, likely to outlive her husband, should acquaint herself with family finances and prospects for survivors in the event of the breadwinner's death."

It is not always the husband who plans for the family's financial future, Mrs. Herting points out. For example, both she and her husband are active professional people; he is a doctor in medical research. Both are well acquainted with the family financial arrangements — a situation which she feels should prevail much more generally.

She poses some questions a wife can ask herself to test her knowledgeability about a situation she is likely some day to face:

1. Should your husband die, where would you look for his will, stock certificates, insurance policies and other valuable papers?
2. Do you have a list of his holdings? What about employee benefits or pension plans at his place of employment? Would you be eligible for Social Security benefits?
3. In what banks does he have deposits? How would you gain access to safe deposit boxes?
4. Would the mortgage on your home have to be paid or is it covered by mortgage insurance?
5. Who is his lawyer, his stock broker, his insurance man and his accountant?

Mrs. Herting advises wives who can't answer such questions to ask their husbands for the information. Her advice to men is that, while it is admirable to make adequate provision for one's family, it is imperative that the wife be informed of these arrangements. Otherwise, much of the benefit of the financial planning may be lost.

Challenge of 70's Topic At BPW District Meeting

Mrs. Catherine Burton of Collinsville, recording secretary of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at the fall meeting of District 14, BPW, held this week at Fische's restaurant in Belleville. More than 120 women attended.

In her address, based on the topic, "Our challenge of the 70's," Mrs. Burton cited what BPW clubs should be doing versus what they are doing in the areas of crime prevention, ecology and legislation.

She stated that membership is down this year and suggested that instead of discussing the past with prospective members should stress the organization is a business club and not a social one.

Concluding her talk Mrs. Burton said, "If everyone had as much enthusiasm as they have suspicion in this world our goals could be accomplished more quickly."

Taking part in the program from the Granite City club were Mrs. Pauline Weir, president, who gave the response and Mrs. Delores Allen, chairman of District 14, who conducted the business session.

A. O. Smith Earnings Up in Third Quarter

A. O. Smith Corp. earned $1,339,000, or 83 cents per share in the third quarter of 1971, compared with $1,197,000, or 49 cents per share in the same period last year, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, has announced.

For the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1971, A. O. Smith earned $8,856,000, or $3.62 per share, compared with $8,087,000, or $3.27 per share in the first nine months of 1970.

Smith said sales in the third quarter of 1971 were $103,912,000 compared with $99,021,000 in the third quarter of 1970. Sales in the first nine months this year were $344,341,000 compared with $327,691,000 last year.

Earnings were reduced by 14

cents in the third quarter because of the federal government's wage and price freeze, Smith said. The company was not able to institute planned price increases for products in its automotive, water heating and agricultural lines because of the freeze and, therefore, was not able to recover its increased costs, Smith said. Smith said the continued freeze would reduce fourth quarter profits but he did not estimate by what amount.

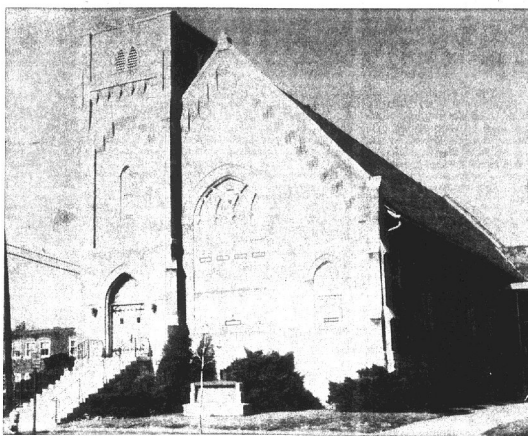

"Our company continues its full support of President Nixon's program," he said, "but we hope that whatever controls are adopted will be removed as soon as practicable."

Charged With Theft Under $150, Battery

Jimmy Ray, 34, of 802 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with theft under $150 and battery after he was arrested in front of Gasen's Drug Store, Nameoki Village Shopping Center, at 6:10 p.m. Monday.

Police charged Ray stole four pairs of panty hose from the drug store, placed them under his shirt and left the store. Edward Wisniewski, store manager, told police he stopped Ray in the parking lot and said Ray swung at him with his fist. Wisniewski signed the battery and theft complaints.

Cooperation from all segments of society will help speed that day."

ST. PETER EVANGELICAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST will observe its 70th anniversary Sunday with a Festival of Religious Music at 7 p.m. The Rev. Robert Kettelhut is pastor. The church, shown above, is located at 2103 Cleveland Blvd.

St. Peter's Church to Mark 70th Year

A community-wide celebration of the 70th anniversary of St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ is planned Sunday. The "Festival of Religious Music" will be held in the church beginning at 7 p.m. St. Peter's Church is located at the corner of 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard.

Ten choirs and instrumental groups from the churches of the Quad-City will present music representative of their church. Churches have been selected in order to present a variety of music and religious backgrounds in keeping with that of the area.

Miss Rosemary Kabureck, a member of the 70th Anniversary Committee, has been coordinating the program. "Choirs and smaller singing groups, instrumental groups, the Salvation Army tymbal choir, and a bell choir will make up the celebration in music," said Miss Kabureck. "The St. Peter Chancel Choir and Junior Choir will also sing."

Mrs. Leonard Anderson, chairman of the 70th Anniversary Committee, said the church is planning two main events to mark their anniversary. The first is the Festival of Religious Music, and the second will be a celebration of the congregation the first Sunday in December which is the Sunday closest to the date on which the church was founded, Dec. 1, 1901.

The church has been located at 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard since Nov. 8, 1903, when the first building was dedicated. Mr. Anderson and her committee are also planning a coffee fellowship after the program for all who attend.

"Through this musical program and the fellowship hour following," said the Rev. Robert Kettelhut, Pastor of St. Peter's, "we hope to share the joy and gratitude of our congregation with the larger community about us. We extend this invitation to all that they may enjoy an evening of music and fellowship for all who attend."

The musical groups and the churches who will participate in the program include: Adult Choir of Mount Zion Baptist Church; Eighth Grade Class of St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church; Chancel Choir of Central Christian Church; the Tymbalists of the Salvation Army; the Youth Choir of Niederrhein Methodist Church; the Adult Choir of Trinity United Methodist Church; Chapel and Chancel Choirs of First United Presbyterian Church, all of Granite City.

The Youth Choir of First United Presbyterian Church of Mitchell, and the Bell Choir of Christ United Church of Christ, Belleville. In addition Lawrence Berry, organist, and the Junior and Chancel Choirs of St. Peter's will participate.

The event adds to the musical history of both St. Peter's Church and Granite City, since many community and religious programs have taken place in its sanctuary. In 1926, the St. David Society, a Welsh men's group, sang at the dedication of an addition to the church. From 1929 to 1945, the Treble Clef Choral Club, a community ladies group, presented annual Christmas concerts in the sanctuary a week before Christmas.

In 1948, St. Peter's Choir and the Granite City High School Choir presented a joint concert at the church. In 1957, a new pipe organ was built and given to the church by Walmer Brummer. The organ was dedicated in 1967 and an organ concert was given in 1968 in conjunction with the annual meeting of the St. Louis area American Organists' Guild.

St. Peter's Church invites the public to attend the program. A reception will follow in the fellowship hall.

Ways to Curb Pollution in Burning Outlined by City

"There is considerable confusion about the new Illinois Open Burning Regulations among the residents of Granite City. I hope this will clear up some of the questions," Erwin C. Hoelscher has commented to the Press-Record. He is technical secretary of the Granite City Air Pollution Board.

"The regulations permit barbecues, campfires and bonfires provided they are used only for recreation and not as an excuse to burn refuse."

"The regulations immediately require that no garbage should be disposed of by backyard burning."

"Since the city already provides a collection service for garbage, there is no reason to burn waste containing garbage and summons will now be issued for this violation," Hoelscher said.

"The new regulations also forbid the open burning of other household waste, including leaves and trimmings in municipalities. However, if the city does not currently have a collection system an exemption is provided which permits burning of household waste (but no garbage) and leaves until July 1, 1972, by which time a collection system is to be in effect."

"The appropriate committees of the City Council are currently considering various solutions in order to provide the best system for the city."

"Thus, until the new collection system is in service, it is permissible to dispose of leaves and household waste by backyard burning. I would like to make the following two recommendations:

"First, as much as possible, recycle paper, glass and metal cans, making use of existing collection facilities. Recycling not only conserves natural resources, but decreases the amount of burning necessary."

"Second, in the fall the evening hours are usually calm with a high humidity and smoke cannot naturally disperse from backyard burning. It hangs in a layer close to the ground where it can easily be inhaled and enter and soil our homes."

"In contrast, atmosphere conditions during the day permit the smoke to rise and disperse. I strongly recommend that every resident who must use backyard burning adjust his schedule so that the burning can be done between sunrise and 5 p.m."

"Following the above recommendation will permit each resident personally to help in reducing air pollution immediately in Granite City without any expense to him," Hoelscher concluded.

Driver Charged in Series of Mishaps

Dennis B. Pulley, 21, of 2415 E. 24th St., was charged with two counts of failure to stop and give information after striking an unattended vehicle and one charge of reckless driving after he allegedly was involved in collisions which damaged five cars Monday.

Police said Pulley's auto struck the parked car of Marilyn Warner, 2142 Lee Ave., which struck the auto of Claude Hickman, 2144 Lee Ave., in front of their homes at 11:30 p.m. Monday, and drove from the scene. Several minutes later police reported he struck the auto of Don Crisel, 2127 Lincoln Ave., parked in the driveway of Crisel's home.

Police said he continued driving and turned north on Kate Street near 24th Street where his auto collided with the south-bound auto of Rose M. Marczak, 715 Iowa St., Madison.

Cong. Price Seeks Safety Designs for School Buses

PRIZE WINNER. Miss Carol Griffin, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin, 2608 Iowa St., receives basketball from Mike Rapoff, YMCA staff member. Carol participated in the YMCA booth at the United Fun Fair, making 18 consecutive free throws to win the grand prize. Carol also received a three-month membership.

An estimated 240,000 school buses transported some 18 million children two billion miles in the United States at a public cost of $825 million last year, according to Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis). In 1969, about 140 persons — 75 of them pupils — died in accidents involving school buses, Cong. Price said, adding that this is a pretty good record when compared with other forms of transportation, but in the words of the nation's number one school bus safety administrator, David H. Soule of the National Highway Traffic Administration, "the potential for tragedy with the school bus is extremely great."

The 24th Illinois District Representative recognized the progress made over the years in the safe operation of school buses, but the Price bill would get at the root of the problem by setting design and manufacture standards similar to those currently applied to the manufacture of automobiles.

"Basically," said Cong. Price, "this bill would do the following things. First, it would require the setting of safety design standards within 18 months after the bill's enactment."

"Second, the bill would require the systematic collection and study of data from school bus accidents. On the basis of that and other research, a prototype vehicle would be built."

"Third, thorough inspections of the vehicles would be required before they leave the manufacturer's hands and again before they are delivered by the dealers."

"I feel," Price said, "that this legislation will help supply the needed safety insurance in this area of highway transportation."

Couple Injured in Four-Car Accident

A Granite City couple was injured in a four-car accident in the intersection of Johnson and Nameoki roads at 5:30 p.m. Monday.

The autos of Connie Odom, 2545 Startford Lane, and J. C. Long, 1062 Ruth St., collided in the intersection and Long's car struck the auto of Wanda Becker, 2022 Park Ave., which was stopped on Johnson Road for the traffic light. The Becker car then collided with one driven by Mrs. Michael Meehan, 34 Del Rio Ave. Long, 24, and his wife, Mrs. Judith Diane Long, 21, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they were released following X-rays and treatment. Long complained of pain to his left shoulder and Mrs. Long sustained an abrasion to her right knee and her forehead.

LEADER RECOGNITION

The Service team of Neighborhood Three Girl Scout leaders met this week in the home of Mrs. Pat McKee, 2210 Hodges Ave., for its October meeting. The chairman, Mrs. Doris Stotz, announced that an association meeting will be held Nov. 9 at 9:30 a.m. at St. John's United Church of Christ instead of the usual first Tuesday. Reservations were turned in for the annual recognition dinner at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 26 at St. John's United Church of Christ. Leaders and officers will be recognized for their years in scouting and for specific services.

Neighborhood Four will host the event and special guests will include River Bluffs Council representatives and several adults who accompanied the scouts and leaders European caravan this summer.

Mrs. Stotz informed the officers of a memorial established in the district in honor of deceased members; each of the five neighborhoods will contribute to the fund. Reports were given by organizers and consultants on the status of their assigned schools and troops.

The chairman invited all service team members and registered adults to attend the semi-annual River Bluffs Council meeting Oct. 27, at 9:30 a.m. at St. John's United Church of Christ.

The program will feature opportunities offered to the senior level, highlighted by girls' reports on the caravan and a recent Wyoming trek. A luncheon will be served at noon and reservations at $1.75 are to be turned in to the council by Oct. 22.

Refreshments were served by hostesses of the month, Mrs. Pat Eaton and Mrs. Eva Arbogast, to those named and Mesdames Joan Yetter, Rosemary Wilson, Velma Collins, Mary Fryntak and Carmen Grider. Webster School leaders will be hostesses for the Nov. 9 meeting and all new leaders are urged to attend to see a demonstration by Mrs. Mae Lee on basket decorating for the "festival of giving."

GC School Board Appoints New Title Director

The Granite City Board of Education, meeting Monday night, employed a new Title I program director and two administrative secretaries.

Mrs. Ruth Lahr, a first grade teacher at Nameoki School, was appointed the new Title I director, effective Oct. 26. B. J. Davis, school superintendent, noted the position is a temporary one at this time. Mrs. Lahr's salary was set at $16,200 per year.

Mrs. Marjorie Burdge, 3109 Willow Ave., was selected as secretary to Frank Kraus, assistant superintendent, effective immediately, and Mrs. Doris Kleiner, 24 Victoria Drive, was employed as secretary to Raymond T. Jones, administrative assistant, effective Oct. 26.

Mrs. Burdge's salary was set at $7,450 per year and Mrs. Kleiner was hired at $7,150 annually.

A resignation from Ola Downing, a cafeteria worker in the district 11 years, was accepted with regrets and a leave of absence was granted to Constance King, a girls' physical education teacher at Griggs Junior High School, from Jan. 4, 1972 to May 8, 1972.

"I Do! I Do!" Set Sunday at McKendree

The Broadway musical "I Do! I Do!" will be presented in the gymnasium of McKendree College, Lebanon, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Admission will be $2.

Fully staged, costumed and lighted, the play features the roadshow cast of Jack and Sally Jenkins and four musicians who double on many instruments.

"I Do! I Do!" opened on Broadway in 1966, its joyful theme of 50 years of happy marriage told in song, dance, and story countering a theatrical trend toward "black comedy" and "the theatre of the absurd," and was an instant success. Mary Martin and Robert Preston starred in the Broadway version for 384 performances, and topped this off with a 36-week national tour.

Jack and Sally Jenkins took over the lead roles and have been pleasing audiences nationwide since.

Mrs. Elaine Wiser, assistant to the dean of students and advisor to the Campus Program Board, which will present the play, said "We feel we are very fortunate to be able to book a play of this caliber on campus, and to be able to share it with the community."

Bids Called for Site Work on High School

Sealed bids for site preparation for the new senior high school at Maryville Road and Route 200 have been called by Granite City School District 9.

Bids will be opened by the Board of Education at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 1, at the school administration offices.

The district is asking bids on excavating, filling and grading under one contract.

Plans and specifications may be obtained by contractors from Gabriel & Dulgeroff, Inc., architects, 1309 North 22nd St. All bids must be accompanied by a bidder's bond or certified check for 5% of the bid.

Regional News Includes Airport, Regional State Offices

(Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation)

News concerning a proposed second major airport for the St. Louis metropolitan area has shifted from the question of an Illinois or Missouri site to the question of whether the area really needs a second airport.

A McDonnell-Douglas Corp. study claims that with expenditures of $160 million for improvements, Lambert-St. Louis International Airport could handle the area's air craft until at least 1980. This would delay the need to begin construction on a new airport until 1980.

The McDonnell study conclusions, based on a saturation forecast of 1990, run counter to forecasts of the Federal Aviation Administration and the Air Transport Association, which contend that Lambert facilities will be saturated by 1980 and that construction on a second airport should begin now.

Plans for financing a $3.5 million East St. Louis regional airport site study building in the city's downtown area were announced by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie. Legislation authorizing the project was introduced in the House by Rep. Ed Lehman (R), James G. Krause (D), Monty L. Flier (D) and Robert Walters (R). The proposed building is part of Gov. Ogilvie's program to regenerate the economy of the East St. Louis area.

Gov. Ogilvie, in another action, instructed the Illinois Division of Waterways to spend up to $35,000 in state funds to restore the East Side Levee and Sanitary District's North Pumping Station to full operation. State action followed a warning by the U. S. Corps of Engineers that the silt building at the pumping station posed a threat of flooding to 71,000 acres of inland.

Utilities Release Protested Tax Funds

A total of $874,335 in protested personal property taxes has been released for distribution by seven utilities because of a Supreme Court decision declaring personal property taxes unconstitutional.

County Treasurer George Musso said a total of $1,254,369 in personal taxes was paid under protest earlier this year. The utilities, which had been ordered to release the taxes, are: American Telephone & Telegraph, $61,800; General Telephone Co., $8,774; Western Union, $2,176; and Natural Gas Pipeline, $171.

Among those who have not yet released the tax funds are American Oil which paid $259,663 under protest, and International Business Machines, $30,280. Twenty-two other businesses have not released the taxes, leaving a total of $360,030 still in escrow, Musso said.

In its report to the governor, the Corps cited 120 other maintenance deficiencies in the levee district and estimated that up to $250,000 would be required to bring East Side Levee and Sanitary District facilities up to acceptable conditions.

A contract for a comprehensive study of Highland's sewer system was endorsed by the city council. The $100,000 contract was awarded to Warren & Van Praag, Inc., St. Louis County consulting engineers.

William Keenum, city manager, said, increases in population, industry and business warrant changes in the sewer system and a new sewage treatment plant.

In other news concerning public utilities, Cahokia Mayor Robert Jackson revealed a plan to merge the Communities of Village area: the Maryville village board of trustees has voted to annex 14.4 acres at the west edge of the village where a new elementary school is being built.

Fairview Heights is discussing the possibility of annexing the 70-acre site of a proposed $30 million shopping center on the east side of Illinois 159 north of U. S. 50, and the City of Wood River has announced it is ready to annex all or parts of Rosewood Heights not yet incorporated.

A land characteristic study for part of St. Clair County has been completed as a guide for future development. The study, conducted by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service under the supervision of the Southwest Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, is available to developers and governing agencies to advise them of soil conditions and construction costs in specific areas.

The study includes the northern portion of the county east of Illinois 111 and 165, the Mascoutah and Dupu areas and the southern section of the county south of Millstadt and west of Illinois 13.

In general area news, the East St. Louis Broadcasting Co. plans to begin broadcasting in March, a week of dedication activities for the new Religious Center is in progress.

Autumn Color Weekend In Southwest Illinois

The Ozark hills in southwest Illinois turn into a blaze of breathtaking beauty each autumn when the rolling hills display the colorful forests like great paintings.

The annual autumn color weekend will begin at 12 noon Saturday, Oct. 23, with lunch on Hale's Boarding House in Grand Tower, Ill., 80 miles south of St. Louis. Leaving there at 1 p.m., visitors will use their cars to visit scenic spots nearby and cross the Mississippi River on a ferry boat, one of the few left on the river. Dinner will be at 6:30 followed by a social hour.

Breakfast Sunday will begin at 6:30 with a church service at 8 and departure at 9 a.m. for a visit to Little Grand Canyon, a little-known beauty spot. The event will end at 3 p.m. Sunday. No reservations—other than meals or rooms—are necessary for those wishing to attend.

Charged With Theft

Maynard E. McCrea, 44, of 2207 Iowa St., was arrested in the 2300 block of Palmer Avenue at 10:25 p.m. Monday and charged with theft under $150. Police said six steel forms for pouring concrete, said by officers to be the property of A. H. Seebold Construction Co., were found in the rear of McCrea's pickup truck.

HIT BY STREET SWEEPER

The parked auto of Michael Schuette, 3105 Jill Ave., was damaged when it was struck by a Granite City Street Department sweeper at 22nd and Adams streets at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday. The street sweeper was driven by Clifford C. Sampson, 2105 Ohio Ave.

5-Point Plan by Percy to Fight Drunk Driving

Senator Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.) Tuesday introduced a five-point program to prevent highway accidents that result from drunken drivers.

"More than 50% of those Americans who are fatally injured in automobile-related accidents are killed by drivers who are intoxicated," Percy said in a statement on the floor of the Senate.

"This accounts for a loss of more than 25,000 lives and contributes to a total economic loss in highway accidents of $3 billion annually," he said.

"The statistics on highway accidents and drunk drivers are appalling. At any given time, one to four of every 100 drivers on the road is drunk—not just drinking, but drunk."

"Alcoholic drivers kill two to three times more Americans than firearms, and the annual total of alcohol-involved fatalities on the highway exceeds the sum of all the murders and all fatalities from railroad, marine and air transportation disasters," he said.

"Alcohol has a marked effect on young drivers," Percy said. "A 20-year-old driver after a few drinks has the reflexes of a 70-year-old, the vision of a 75-year-old, the hearing of a 75-year-old, and the coordination of a person of 90."

"Yet, youth does not comprise the largest group of offenders. There are more than seven million adult escape drinkers and chronic alcoholics, who represent the primary road hazard."

"Added to this pool are the 16 million individuals who are heavy social drinkers, meaning that once a month they may drink enough to exceed 0.10% blood alcohol level designating intoxication. They constitute an additional threat to individual safety on the roads."

The five point Percy program, called the Highway Safety Act of 1971, would:

1. Provide an improved funding mechanism for highway safety programs by authorizing the use of 10% of the revenues collected from federal liquor taxes for highway safety programs. On the basis of 1970 revenues, the 10% figure would have amounted to $475 million.

2. Provide for an effective record and information system under which traffic offense records would be available to licensing states, irrespective of where the offense was committed. "This would enable states to have much needed information with which to develop better criteria for licensing," Percy said.

3. Authorize the dispersal of funds, now classified as discretionary in terms of the Secretary of Transportation's power to spend them, as incentives to states to reduce traffic accidents and deaths. "The incentive would hopefully encourage development of stronger state highway programs."

4. Specify demonstration projects for improving state highway safety programs in terms of congressional preference. The would include the development of pre-arrest breath test procedures, licensing limitations, flexibility in sentencing options and training of special medical personnel to treat the alcoholic traffic offender.

5. Require that hospitals receiving federal monies must admit and provide evaluation and treatment of persons involved in violations of traffic laws while driving under the influence of alcohol.

Percy cited previous Congressional initiatives, including the Comprehensive Alcohol Abuse Act of 1970, which he co-sponsored, and said, "Even with these excellent initiatives, much more needs to be done to designate highway safety as a major national goal."

"We must, in my view, take every reasonable and constitutional means to stop the tragic loss of lives on our highways."

"Because the drunk driver represents such a significant part of that problem, and because drunk drivers place in jeopardy millions of lives every single day, I am introducing legislation that will deal specifically with this area."

County Baptist Youth Plan Halloween Party, Retreat

The Madison County Baptist Association's Youth Council has elected as officers: president, Bob Nepute, Pleasant Ridge; vice-president, Dave Odor, Calvary of Edwardsville; secretary, Virginia Wolf, New Hope; and publicity chairman, Martha Cornett, Alpha Center. The council discussed a Halloween party and decided that it will take place Oct. 30 from 7:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. at the Baptist Grounds, Mitchell.

Each church will be responsible for its own food, drinks and utensils for roasting hot dogs and marshmallows. Each church also will provide extra food for guests. Among the entertainment ideas is a rock gospel group.

Plans for November include

Frank Gac Receives Engineering Grant

Frank D. Gac, 2641 Washington Ave., has been named one of 27 students at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, to receive ceramic engineering scholarships this year.

The scholarship was given to the U of I junior by Champion Spark Plug Co. Scholarships were awarded by specific industries or gifts to the university. Fifteen freshmen scholarships were from a general fund supported by the ceramic industry. Most were awarded on a basis of scholarship and professional promise.

"The demand for ceramic engineers continues high," Arthur L. Friedberg, head of the department of ceramic engineering, said. "Only 18 colleges in the nation offer training in ceramic engineering, and they cannot fill the need for men trained in the field."

"Work of ceramic engineers cover a broad range from nuclear reactors and electronic devices through aerospace materials, new materials for homes and materials for medical applications, to catalytic devices to reduce air pollution," he said.

a youth retreat to Springfield, Ill., Nov. 26 and 27. The group will stay at the Holiday Inn East and there will be one adult sponsor for every 15 youths attending; a $13.50 fee will cover the entire trip, four meals and room. Those interested are to contact Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellsworth, 877-0123 or Bob Nepute, 344-7222, for information.

Amvets Auxiliary to Sponsor Scholarship

The Amvets Auxiliary of the Department of Illinois has announced that the $500 Worchild Scholarship again will be awarded this year. To be eligible for this award, the boy or girl must reside in Illinois and must be a Worchild, the child of a deceased veteran who served in World War II, Korea or Vietnam.

The parent need not have been killed in action nor have disability. A candidate must be a senior in high school and must take the American College Testing Program. Judging will be by the Amvets Auxiliary and the winner may select the college or his or her choice.

Cheryl Brinkmeyer Is Pledged to Delta Zeta

Cheryl Vey Brinkmeyer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brinkmeyer, 1824 Ferguson Ave., has been pledged to the Delta Zeta Sorority, Gamma Nu Chapter, according to an announcement by Debbie Schmidt, press chairman for the sorority.

Miss Brinkmeyer is a sophomore at Eastern Illinois University where she is majoring in business education. She is a member of the Secretarial Club and a member of the University's pom pom squad.

Y Sponsors Peanut Sale for Memberships

The YMCA Youth Department again is sponsoring a "Peanut Sale" in order to allow youngsters to earn a YMCA membership. The sale will start tomorrow and continue through Saturday, Nov. 13.

The product being sold is the Adams & Brooks Butter Toffee Nuts, the same nuts that the youngsters sold last Spring. Nuts sell for $1 per can.

The nuts may be picked up anytime after 9 a.m. Friday. A parent must accompany youths to sign a "Permission to Sell" slip as well as check out the peanuts for the youngsters.

A youngster will need to sell 55 cans at 36¢ credit for each can to earn a $20 yearly membership. Salesmen receive only credit to a 10¢ membership. Those who sell less than the total needed for a membership, may pay the balance in cash.

Grandson Promoted at Missouri Military

Cadet Robert Windisch of Sukran, Okinawa, the grandson of Mrs. Helen DeRuntz, 2145 Grand Ave., has been promoted to corporal in the Reserve Officers Training Corps unit at Missouri Military Academy, Mexico, Mo.

Lt. Col. John Starke, commandant of cadets, said the promotion was made for scholastic, military, athletic and leadership progress attained in the M.M.A. Cadet Corps.

Missouri Military Academy is an 83-year-old school for boys in fourth through 12th grades. It emphasizes academic achievement, physical fitness and leadership training.

right, Tim Kienle, George Sykes, Mark McAmish, Angela Griffey and Bill Pearce. Another 10-lesson session is scheduled to begin Saturday, Dec. 4. Registrations are being accepted at the "Y" Youth Office, 876-7200.

Medical School Personnel Appointed by SIU Board

School of Medicine appointments highlighted personnel changes approved by the Southern Illinois University board of trustees at the Carbondale campus.

Four of the changes implemented an "instant department of radiology," according to Dean Richard May, referring to an agreement being developed between SIU and radiologists' corporations serving Springfield's two hospitals. These agreements gain the services of nearly a score of physicians to help plan curriculum, develop teaching materials and relate radiology as a clinical discipline to other departments.

The corporations are the Springfield Radiologists Service Corp., associated with St. Johns Hospital, and the Clinical Radiologists Service Corp., associated with Springfield Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Patrick F. Mahon and Dr. Donald W. Sherrick, representing the two corporations, were named acting co-chairmen of radiology. Drs. Erwin M. Janzen and David B. Lewis were named clinical professors of radiology.

"Under this arrangement the cost will be much less than if the SIU School of Medicine recruited and equipped an entire radiology department," May said. "The dedication and commitment of the Springfield radiologists has made possible this innovation in medical education."

"Early Bird" Swim is New YMCA Program

With the great move across the country for physical fitness and the pressed schedules of those who needed health, several "move and move early" fitness programs are being developed at Tri City Area YMCA here.

A new addition at the "Y" is "Early Bird Swim" from 7:27-9 a.m., Tuesdays through Fridays. The sessions are supervised by Fred McCollegan, local barber, past "Y" swim coach, and water safety instructor will be the supervisor. He will be concentrating on fitness thru swimming using various strokes. Various training programs are available. Information may be obtained through McCollegan or Kent Dunn, physical director.

YOU CAN DEPEND ON THE DODGE BOYS.

THEY CARE ABOUT YOU!

ARE YOU HOPING THE OLD FAMILY BUDGET CAN AFFORD A NEW CAR THIS YEAR?

GOOD NEWS!

If you've been shopping around, you've probably discovered that some traditional "family cars" have somehow become giant-sized, high-priced machines. But we Dodge Boys think we've filled the gap left by Ford and Chevy—with our new 1972 Dodge Coronet.

Coronet was designed to be just one thing: a solid, family-sized four-door that's priced so most families can afford it. Four doors give you easy entry and exit and rear-seat headroom that most two-door models don't give you. Coronet has room for six people. It has a big trunk and styling you'll be proud of.

And Coronet comes in five great four-door models: two sedans and three different station wagons. One of them is bound to be priced to fit the old family budget (and the old family garage, too). See us today.

No Rank Pulling Allowed in DMZ Coffee House

More and more McKendree students are staying on campus these weekends, and one reason is the DMZ Coffee House. The coffee house is entirely student-run and is a place where students can find a "different" atmosphere in their own place. The walls are black, with phosphorescent footstep lights up the wall, and with posters and other decorations. A small room off the main room is completely black, including the ceiling. It is called the inner Sanctum. It's a place for relatively quiet talks. In one corner of the main room there is a small stage. There are flashing strobe lights, and there is a speaker system. The entertainment is varied, according to Dennis Barker, a leader of the Coffee House committee.

There was a religious folk singer, a rock band, a strolling Irish folk singer and a conventional folk singer on opening night. There also are poetry readings, dramatic readings, opportunities for students to "do their things."

The coffee house is on the lower floor of an old barracks-type temporary dorm building. The students redecorated it themselves. It's called "DMZ" for de-militarized zone, Barker explains that means there is no rank there. Students and faculty can meet on common ground.

However, in deference to the age of the average faculty member, there are five or six chairs in the place. The students sit on pillows or on the floor.

The Coffee House has been open two weeks this year. Barker carefully counted the seating places and decided there was room for 48. But opening night he counted more than 100 in the place at one time.

Goal of Study--Help in Preparing for College

A "countdown for college," aimed at preparing high school students for their continuing education, is one of the features of a new study released by the Prudential Insurance Co. Published in the form of a 12-page booklet with the title "Facing Facts about Preparing for your Future," the study is designed for distribution as a guide for high school students, their guidance counselors and parents.

The countdown suggests practical steps that the student may take, beginning in his or her junior year, to prepare for college and an ensuing career.

It includes mapping out of courses and extracurricular activities, taking aptitude tests, making financial plans and thinking about specific schools or colleges.

"Your junior year is also a good time to start visiting campuses and to talk with students attending the schools and colleges in which you are interested," the study suggests.

It points out that of the 15 million students now in high school, more than half will go to college. Millions of others will pursue a different form of education — office training or technical education — and still others will go directly to work where they will receive on-the-job training.

Says the study: "The last years in high school give each student a chance to prepare for the coming transition. It is a period that involves many decisions for young people — decisions that will be easier to make if the right steps are taken beforehand."

These steps include:

1. Good preparation; doing well in courses.
2. Settling on a general sense of career direction as early as possible.
3. Consulting help from guidance counselors.
4. Beginning to take adult responsibilities.

responsibility for what a career route can cost, in terms of dollars.

The booklet also describes different types of educational facilities—universities, colleges, technical institutes and proprietary schools — and encourages the student to do hard thinking about the various kinds of education as they relate to needs, interests and finances.

It also offers a "self-inventory chart" by which the reader can outline his abilities, interests, and other characteristics.

A chapter, titled "Hurdles and How to Clear Them," gives suggestions on getting accepted by the institution and getting the money to pay for it.

"Facing Facts about Preparing for Your Future" is the latest in a series. Previous booklets examined two-year colleges, choosing one's life's work, making a success of one's college career, and career opportunities for the high school graduate.

Copies are available on request from Prudential Insurance Co., Box 36, Prudential Plaza, Newark, N.J. 07101.

New Law on Ethics Still Far from Certain

By KEN WATSON
Copley News Service

SPRINGFIELD — In spite of all the uproar over the Illinois racing stock story enactment of a meaningful ethics bill at the fall session of the legislature is far from certain.

On the Statehouse morning line, the odds stand only about even and the political rail-birds rate them a lot less than that.

That's the way the situation stands despite strong pleas for a tough ethics law by such prominent figures as Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, Lt. Gov. Paul Simon, House Speaker W. Robert Blair and former Senate President Pro Tem W. Russell Arrington.

There is, however, a big gap between the state's political leadership and the rank and file lawmakers whose votes will be necessary to pass the bill.

One might think that every legislator in the state would want to jump on the ethics bandwagon. But that is not the nature of the legislature.

It remains, as ever, a collection of individuals—many of whom are reluctant to depart from long-held beliefs.

There has long been a deep skepticism among many lawmakers about any ethics, conflict of interest

1338a Niedringhaus Ave. before Oct. 20.

During a separate training session, Webelo leaders learned to make rope while the denier made butter in a home-made butter churn.

Handicraft items were displayed and explained by Vee Throne, Nadene Taylor, of Pack 98; Annalee Sheppard of Pack 19; and Myrna Geisler of Pack 7.

A skit entitled "O Pioneers, O Pioneers" was performed by Cubs of Pack 141 under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Furman and Mrs. Baxter, with Mrs. Charlene Boyd of Pack 141 as narrator.

Next month's Roundtable meeting will be held at the Venice Recreation Center.

or income disclosure legislation. What legislation that has been enacted in these areas has been generally weak and ineffective.

Some legislators believe sincerely that this will always be the case no matter what kind of a bill might eventually be passed and signed into law.

They insist that if a lawmaker is going to be unethical, if not downright dishonest, he is going to do it and probably get away with it no matter what kind of law might be on the books.

They contend—and some respected jurists agree—that ethics and conflict of interest are so vague that they can never be clearly defined by bill and that any legislator ever charged and tried under such a law would have little difficulty achieving a "not guilty" verdict.

It is frequently pointed out at the Statehouse that with all the disclosures that have been published since the death of the late Secretary of State Paul Powell, there is nothing to date that could be expected to result in a conviction of violating a state law.

It is generally accepted that if Powell were alive today, and his famed shoe box having been revealed, his major threat would be a federal conviction on income tax evasion charges.

No responsible official is known to have declared or even strongly insinuated that Powell specifically violated any state laws as such.

The same situation roughly prevails in relation to all the disclosures about high government officials and legislators who bought, sold, held or held race track stock. It is extremely unlikely that any will ever face any state charge in the matter.

The worry they do have is that some may have run afoul of a rarely used federal law known as the Hobbs Act which makes it illegal for a government official to use his position to solicit funds.

Illinois lawmakers are fearful that any state ethics bill including strong public disclosure provisions would embarrass them by revealing business connections they would prefer to keep secret from constituents.

The power of public opinion may yet force a meaningful ethics bill into law. But don't count on it, at least at this session.

Fall Colors Beckon at State's Tourist Sites

(Illinois Department of Conservation)

Autumn beckons — and why not combine your fall color trip with leisurely visits to some of the lesser known sites of Illinois?

Many discerning citizens who save vacation time until the enjoyable, unburied autumn season find it is an ideal time to view the landscape art of forest and field while sampling a bit of historic offerings at numerous Lincoln shrines in the state, says Ronald D. Johnson, Superintendent of the Division of Parks and Memorials, Illinois Department of Conservation.

Lincoln and his family spent a cold and miserable winter along the Sangamon River near Decatur in 1830. This area has been dedicated as Lincoln Trail Homestead State Park. Scenic camping areas along the Sangamon River complement the open and sheltered picnic areas so popular with family groups.

A stone commemorates the location of the Lincoln homestead. The park is just west of Decatur, two miles south of Route 36.

Nor too far from this is the historic Mt. Pulaski Courthouse, a real jewel of simple pioneer architecture. Authenticity of the atmosphere of this small town courthouse brings to mind the importance of this center of county politics in Lincoln's day.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

It wasn't too far for Lincoln to go to the Postville Courthouse from Mt. Pulaski.

Henry Ford was so taken with the Postville Courthouse that he purchased it and reassembled it at Greenfield Village in Michigan.

As a result, it was necessary to reconstruct a replica of the courthouse for those interested in Lincoln lore. Postville has been absorbed into the city of Lincoln and the courthouse is on the south edge of town near Routes 66 and 121.

Another example of a larger and more grand courthouse of Lincoln's day is to be found at Metamora.

This imposing courthouse on the village square contains a museum as well as many mementos of the days of its importance. It is featured as the center of attraction at the Woodford County Old Settlers celebration, each year.

Lincoln's New Salem at Petersburg is well known for the restoration and reconstruction of the village of Lincoln's young manhood.

Springfield has Lincoln's Home, a new National Park site; the Lincoln Tomb and the Old State Capitol, all well known from the later periods of Lincoln's life.

Vandalia State House was the second capital of Illinois, where Lincoln spent his first term as a state legislator from New Salem.

The lovely southern style memorial has been carefully landscaped and equipped with authentic furnishings of the day.

The State House is the center of festive special events for the tourist and townspeople and a real treat for the individual who appreciates classic beauty.

Lincoln Log Cabin State Park has a reconstructed log cabin set in a lovely wooded area, a real fall treat for the touring foliage lover.

The "split rail fence" surrounding the park adds to the beauty of the rustic scene.

Other state-owned areas operated by the Division of Parks and Memorials are open all year round with the exception of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years Day.

To obtain information about state parks and historic memorials, write to the Division of Parks and Memorials, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

Get in Shape

The major portion of Illinois' hunting season will be starting soon and thousands of hunters will be taking to the field.

To obtain information about state parks and historic memorials, write to the Division of Parks and Memorials, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

Take daily walks in your hunting boots a few weeks before the season opens, and increase the distance until your legs and wind are in condition for the type of hunting you will be doing.

Set up a daily routine of exercises to get your arm and shoulder muscles in shape for carrying a seven or eight pound shotgun.

And it is always a good idea to have a physical examination by your doctor. As with any other sport, hunting will be a lot more fun if you get in shape.

Dam Completed

Work on the dam for the creation of Sam Parr Lake at Sam Parr State Park was recently completed by the Illinois Department of Conservation.

"We still have some work to be done before we close the valve and begin filling the lake," said Henry N. Barkhausen, director of the department.

"There are overhead telephone cables crossing the lake basin that must be relocated by the utility company and the Department plans to install a water line across the basin to serve the rest of the park."

The Department also plans to selectively remove some of the woody vegetation from the basin prior to the filling of the lake, and from an economical standpoint that can only be done prior to impounding the water.

When completed, the lake will contain approximately 183 surface acres of water for recreational use in the park, which is located near Newton in Jasper County.

The Division of Fisheries management plan calls for chemical treatment in the lake basin and watershed in the spring of 1972, prior to stocking the lake with fish.

From the biological and economical standpoint of carrying out this fish management plan, it will require the valve remaining open until the spring of 1972, just prior to the treatment.

Department engineers say that the delay in closing the valve will not affect the recreational use of the lake, since it has a large watershed area that will let it fill rapidly.

Under normal precipitation, there would be sufficient water to fill the lake twice in one year.

Each graduate's $17 payment, $4 had been for first-year dues for the SIU Alumni Association, $7 for a fund to defray costs for Commencement exercises, and $3 for student promotional activities.

Homemakers' Corner

AVOID KITCHEN ACCIDENTS

Scalds and burns rank high as causes of kitchen accidents. A few simple precautions will help prevent accidents in the kitchen:

—Keep children out of your way while you work in the kitchen. A gate at the kitchen door will keep small children out while you're cooking with hot water or fat.

—Turn handles of all pots and pans toward the back of the range or table. Never let them extend over the edge.

—Select a safe place for electrical appliances. A cord dangling from a coffee percolator or toaster invites inspection by youngsters. Keep all cords well out of their reach. Also avoid the possibility of tripping over cords that may upset mixers, heaters or other electrical equipment.

—Keep matches out of the reach of small children. If there are children in your family, use only safety matches. And provide a non-inflammable container for burned matches.

KEEP BIKE RIDING SAFE

Bike riding is fun, but it is also dangerous if riders don't know traffic rules and don't keep their bikes in top shape.

Keep bikes in good repair. Be certain front and rear headlights, as well as the rest of the bike, are in good working order. When riding in traffic, keep your bike under control — no tricky steering, weaving, or racing. Stay close to the curb, stay on the correct side of the street, and move with traffic. Watch for parked cars turning into traffic or car doors opening suddenly.

Travel in a single line when riding with others and follow a full bike-length behind. Keep both hands on the handle bars except to signal when turning, stopping, or leaving the curb. Come to a dead stop at all stop signs and red or amber traffic lights.

When approaching intersections, keep your bike under control and be ready to apply brakes. At busy intersections, get off and walk your bike across—in the pedestrian crossing area.

CLEAN MEDICINE CABINETS

Clean the family cabinet regularly. Weekly attention is not too frequent.

Take inventory of medicines and discard those that are old or no longer needed. Dispose of them where they are out of the reach of children and animals. If you have young children in the home, lock the cabinet and store the key in a safe place. Children are climbers, and the height of an unlocked cabinet is no assurance of safety.

ACCESSORIES CAN HELP YOU LOOK SLIM

"How can I appear taller and slimmer?" That's a question asked by countless girls and women.

One answer is to create an illusion with lines in garments and accessories that will keep an onlooker's eye moving upward.

Another technique is to use accessories to attract the eye to your best features and therefore detract from the less attractive features. Or, you can use accessories to camouflage the features you consider less attractive.

Selection and how the accessory is worn will determine how effective the slimmer illusion is accomplished. Fashion usually suggests the particular accessories that are "in" and how to wear them. But it's up to you to adapt your selections to your figure.

Chains, beads and other types of necklaces generally rate a place among accessories. Long necklaces of fine or medium-sized chain or beads will carry the eye upward. A combination of short and long lengths will tend to hold the eye focus around the face. This style is particularly good for the woman who has wide hips.

The defined waistline is back in style with a renewed emphasis on belts. However, many women believe that belts make the figure appear shorter and wider. That's not necessarily so. If you select the right belt and wear it correctly, you won't have a problem. For a slim look, select a narrow or medium-width belt that matches the garment color. Leave wide, tight belts in contrast color to women who are tall and slim.

Shoes and hose are important for the "total look" in today's fashions and can help to make the figure look slimmer. Avoid bright, contrasting hose. Select a shade similar to the garment and coordinated with the shoes. It is not necessary to have everything the same tone. Keep the colors similar, but vary the shades.
